

of the city of Tokio, made only six weeks ago, showing the modern build-capital, all destroyed by earthquake and fire, with frightful loss of life.

Here is a wonderful aerial view of the city of Tokio, made only six weeks ago, showing the modern buildings in the heart of the Japanese capital, all destroyed by earthquake and fire, with frightful loss of life.

BASEBALL NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE

The Opera House Tuesday the Bob Ott received an enthusiastic welcome from a housefull of people who clearly demonstrated they had not forgotten an old favorite.

Bob is the same quaintly humorous character as of old, except for the fact that time has mellowed that old and taking style of comedy has made his own and his quaint remarks have become more spontaneously humorous than ever.

"Try And Get It," the comedy tonight, Mr. Ott has a vehicle that fits his personality—down to earth and even they are funny.

Mr. Ott has a vehicle that fits his personality—down to earth and even they are funny.

Mr. Ott has a vehicle that fits his personality—down to earth and even they are funny.

Angier B. Duke

Angier B. Duke, 39, member of the famous family of tobacco manufacturers, was drowned when he fell from a small boat at a float on the Indian Harbor Yacht Club, New York, Conn. Mr. Duke, who was a hand in a hunting accident several years ago, was unable to stand and was drawn under the boat while preparing to take a group of friends to his yacht for a night supper. Mr. Duke was the owner of the $50,000,000 estate of his father, Benjamin J. Duke, and his brother, James B. Duke.

City of Byzantium.

The city is also known as Byzantium, which is the older name. Constantinople was founded, according to legend, by a band of settlers from the city under the leadership of Byzantium B. C. and received its name from him. It was nearly a thousand years before the Roman emperor Constantine rebuilt the city, called it by his own name and made it the capital of the empire. It was also called "New Rome" or "New Rome" on account of this latter fact.

PLAN TO PLANT ANOTHER TREE

Fall is the best.

Free Landscape Advice.

Phone Rhinebeck 226-R.

Rhinebeck Floral Co.

GUARANTEED Used Cars For Sale

Ford Touring, '17....$100
Ford Racer.....$200
Ford Touring, '23....$400
Ford Touring, '18....$150
Oakland Tour., '19....$300
Chevrolet Tour., '19....$150
Maxwell Road., '22....$675
Maxwell Road., '23....$725
Maxwell Tour., '22....$650
Maxwell Tour., '20....$150
Geo Touring, '21....$600
Geo Touring, '21....$250
Ford Tour., '21....$600
Ford Coupe, '22....$850
Ford Touring, '22....$850

Easy Terms.

Trades Considered.

STUYVESANT GARAGE

250 Clinton Ave., Kingston.
Tel. 1176. Open Evenings.

Bracelet Is Worn by Stylish Women

Accessory Made Attractive by Use of Fancy Cut Diamonds.

If any one article of jewelry can be said to be more popular than another it is the bracelet, writes a fashion authority in the New York Tribune. Not one but many bracelets are worn by fashionable women. The bangle or rigid style of bracelet is not used. The keynote of the fashionable bracelet is flexibility, and very lovely are bands of pure, sparkling diamonds. They are very often combined with onyx, forming the popular black and white effects.

A new note in bracelets, and one particularly suitable because of its light and pure aspect, is the use of fancy cut diamonds, alternating triangular, square and flower shapes.

The jeweled girdle brings a barbaric note to jewelry. The girdle derives its inspiration from the Oriental and Egyptian nations. It is developed in varying materials, according to the costume and the time at which it is worn. For the formal evening gown there are girdles composed entirely of diamonds in platinum with buckles of diamonds.

Another formal girdle is made of diamonds combined with links of black enamel. There are also girdles made entirely of rows of pearls. Suitable for wear with filmy dresses are girdles of silver ribbon clasped by buckles of carved jade and other semi-precious stones.

The headband retains its popularity for evening wear. Naturally for the less formal dance it is extremely simple and consists of a narrow band of diamonds enclosed in borders of small pearls.

The headband is worn low over the forehead and clasps at the back of the head. It, therefore, fulfills the double purpose of beauty and usefulness in confining the coiffure, which perhaps has not yet grown to its full length. With such a headband one can easily change the day coiffure to an evening one suitable for dinner or the dance.

With the headband, especially those combined with pearls, is worn a single string of pearls, carrying out again the ever-present motive of harmony in jewelry.

Pearls are popular for all occasions. Charming inspirations in earrings are those of turquoise globes suspended from links of diamonds; crystal combined with sapphires, and jade carved or in combination with onyx and diamonds.

Wrap for Cool Days of Late Summer and Fall

This brown and tan sport coat, to the beauty of which is added a red fox collar, should be popular during the latter part of the summer and for fall wear.

Hand-Knit Capes to Wear for Motoring

No well-dressed woman will wear a machine-knit cape or sweater. Hand-knit garments have a distinction all their own. Wealthy women who do not have time or inclination to knit, patronize the exclusive shops where only hand-knit garments are sold, and they pay anything from $25 to $100 for original designs in hand-knit wear.

At present the hand-knit cape for motor wear is the style on the Riviera and other exclusive resorts in Europe, where styles are set. The cape reaches well to the bottom of the dress. It is done in the simple knitting stitch, or in a combination of knit a few, purl a few. The capes are in one color or two tones, although the Roman stripe plays its part. Roll collars of brushed yarn or angora top the cape, which ties with braided or crocheted streamers to match the collar. It takes little more yarn to make a cape than it does to make a sweater. And no more time.

Land of Rubber.

A traveler can ride for seven hours by railway train, or more than 300 miles, between Singapore and Penang, in the Federated Malay States, and not once lose sight of the rubber plantations.

Rich Fur Trimming Is Used on This Garment

A new fabric is here shown in a garment also new in cut, forecasting the fall silhouette—navy with gray fur trim.

Bathroom Towels May Occupy Higher Sphere

Turkish bath towels are not so very different in appearance from cotton chenille and other materials that are used for a variety of purposes and may therefore, with perfect propriety step outside of the bathroom door and find a place in any other room of the house. These towels may be bought in a variety of widths and lengths. Also Turkish towel material may be purchased by the yard and comes in very wide widths. Have you ever tried using the towels or material for window or door hangings? It may be done with very good effect. It almost goes without saying that if one attempted to use them in their original white color the effect would not be very pleasing. But they may be easily dyed very charming colors or they may be decorated with paint or with applied materials.

Plain towels or materials may be used and all of the ornamentation added, or a very good effect may be obtained without any labor by buying towels that have a deep border on one end and a narrow one on the other. In dyeing these borders become relatively dark. If you like fringe you will find that a heavy but narrow one gives a good finish to the curtains. If fringe is used be sure that, if you do not dye it yourself, it is thoroughly shunk before sewing it on. Nothing is gained by dyeing the fringe yourself except that if you buy a cotton fringe and dye it, it will be much more apt to blend with the curtains when the light has changed their color somewhat.

Heavy drapes such as these are best hung with hooks that pin into the material. If a hem is made the curtain will not push back far enough.

It is usually advisable and almost always economical to use double curtain rods. This allows the under curtain to protect the heavy drapes from strong light. If colored drapes do not have this protection they should be faced. This is neither so practical nor so economical.

Dark Green and Brown Favored Fall Colors

Dark green in myrtle or bottle shade is expected to be seen in outer apparel of the more exclusive sort. Green for coats and suits would not ordinarily meet with popular approval, but the color this season has attained a distinction that upsets all preconceived notions of what may be done with it. Dark blue for coats is a staple color in fine fabrics.

Coats are again in the velvet wool pile fabrics so much in vogue last winter. There is a representation of duvetyne or cashmere duvetyne and a soft wool material having a luster rather like broadcloth and suggesting satin at a little distance. Luster surfaced materials are coming in.

Gray, in shades like kit fox, squirrel and platinum, is a strong color note in coats and suits. Black is prominent, lending itself better than anything else to the colorful and elaborate embroideries, which continue to be in vogue, associated with a substantial use of gold and silver thread. Brown, in shades ranging from tete de negre up to the lighter heaver and taupe, is largely represented. Brown is often associated with beaver fur and with self-tone rather than contrasting embroideries.

Find Many Uses for White Sand in Home

The uses of white sand—yes, white sand—in a home are varied, and while not otherwise known, very useful.

Clean white sand placed in the bottom of Chinese lanterns will partly stop their swaying and hence lessen the danger from lighting.

Sand and warm water will quickly cleanse milk bottles, fruit jars or other glass retainers to reach the interior of which is difficult.

Sand is kept in many homes to scour the floor of the kitchen. Heated bags of sand are used instead of hot-water bottles.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The Origin of a Word.

The meaning of the word "curate" is, nowadays, a very different one from that of former times. Previously the curate was the person responsible for the cure of souls of the parish; today he is the assistant clergyman.

WOMEN'S $1.25 SILK HOSE

Pure silk and silk and fibre, $1.00
black and colors

School Bags
25c, 39c to $1.50

WOMEN'S LISLE HOSE

Fine quality mercerized lisle, 59c
black, white, cor., gray, beaver

Pencil Cases
25c to $1.25

Back to School Sales For The Little Ones

Let this great store provide the necessary apparel and school supplies.

SPECIALS IN HOSIERY

BOYS' RIBBED HOSE, wide and narrow ribbed black and cordovan, 35c; 3 pairs for $1.00

MISSES' RIBBED HOSE, fine ribbed, black, white, cordovan ..... 29c

CHILDREN'S LISLE HOSE, mercerized lisle, black, white, cordovan..... 50c and 59c

GINGHAM DRESSES, checks and stripes, sizes 7 to 14. Special ..... $1.00

CHILDREN'S Gingham, Percale, Chambray and Crepe Dresses, solid colors, checks and stripes with and without bloomers, sizes 7 to 14. Price Range. $1.59, $1.97, $2.59, $2.97, $3.59 to $4.47.

CHILDREN'S Wool Skirts in navy, serge, plaid and check worsted, sizes 10 to 16. .... $2.97 to $5.59 each

MIDDY BLOUSES, all white, co-ed and regulation, sizes 10 to 22. Price ..... $1.00, $1.59, $1.79, $1.97

MIDDY BLOUSES, flannel and serge, red, green and navy. Price ..... $2.97 to $5.97

MISSES' AND GIRLS' Bloomers for gymnasium work, wool serges, black saten, full cut, sizes 14 to 22. Prices. $1.25, $1.59, $3.97

CANNING and PRESERVING SUPPLIES

PRESERVING KETTLES

White Enamel

2 quart ..... 69c
3 quart ..... 79c
4 quart ..... 89c
6 quart ..... 98c
10 quart ..... $1.45
14 quart ..... $1.70

PRESERVING KETTLES

Gray Enamel

1 quart ..... 45c
2 quart ..... 49c
4 quart ..... 59c
6 quart ..... 75c
8 quart ..... 95c
10 quart ..... 98c
12 quart ..... $1.10
16 quart ..... $1.98

SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK

|   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| 36 IN. DOMET FLANNELFull bleached, good weight, limit 10 yards to one person.SPECIAL 19c | 21c BLEACHED MUSLINFull 36 inches wide, free from dressing.SPECIAL 17c | 25c CLOTH OF GOLDFull 36 inches wide, snow white, chamois finish.SPECIAL 19c |
| 40 INCH UNBLEACHED MUSLINHeavy quality. Regular 19c.SPECIAL 15c.                         | 19c BLEACHED DOMET FLANNELFull bleached, good weight.SPECIAL 15c       |   |

FIRST DUTCH CHURCH

Most Inviting After Renovation—Meeting Notices.

Prayer meeting will be held in the lecture room Thursday evening at 7:30. Mr. Beeve will conduct the service.

The monthly meeting of consistory will be held immediately after the service.

On Sunday the morning service will be held as usual at 10:30. Bible school at 12 o'clock and evening service at 7:30. C. E. meeting at 8:45. The lecture room has been beautifully redecorated, the carpet taken up and renovated by the cleaners, and the furniture has been overhauled and rejuvenated. The church has been thoroughly cleaned and everything about the church and lecture room appears most inviting.

See Dante, Opera House, September 10, 11 and 12.

Have Dr. O. J. Lee, and Co. at the Theosophical Headquarters, First Equatorial, in the city.

Scientists from all parts of the world are flocking to southern California to study the total eclipse sun that will occur there on September 10, the first time the phenomenon has been visible in the States in 54 years. Most of the photographs will be taken at the Theosophical headquarters at Point near San Diego, where the eclipse will be visible for 2 minutes and 43 seconds. All the delicate instruments from the Mount Wilson Observatory have been set up there. Dr. Oliver J. Lee has set up his coelostat reflecting light of the sun to the lens of his camera at Catalina Island. The equatorial mounting telescopes have also been set up there to photograph the eclipse.

ONE CENT A WORD ADVS. BRING RESULTS

OUTH ON BIKE HURT BY AUTO

Arthur Williams, a young man employed at the H. J. Hoggar factory, John street, and home at 17 Ardley street, was hurt by a narrow escape from serious injury Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock when he was run down on his bicycle by an automobile. Williams was on his wheel going down the road and just as he was at the driveway to the Texaco oil service station near the corner of Van Buren street, a Maxwell touring car, No. 633-564, owned and run by Vite Spinelli of Rif shot across the road and toward service station, and Williams was run down by the Maxwell. The wheel of his new bicycle was broken, and Williams was knocked off the roadway, was picked up by in autos who heard the crash, carried to the office of the Texaco Oil Company, where it was seen that the young man was bleeding from his nose and from scratches on face, and was considerably bruised. Mr. Spinelli stated that he did see Williams on the bicycle, and that he would settle for whatever damage was done. Officer Reardon was called a few minutes after the accident and was given the number of car.

O AUTO ACCIDENTS REPORTED TO POLICE

Chief Koltz reported to the police department Tuesday afternoon that a car had collided with the car of H. Bush of Kelly's Corners on Broadway, near Thomas street, but damage was slight.

Chief Schwab of Saugerties reported that her car had collided with the car of Rudolph Rowsth of Roseton on Broadway, near Thomas street, and that the collision was caused by Rowsth's failure to signal was going to stop. The damage was slight.

New Saugerties Pastor.

The Rev. W. F. Hersh began his pastorate with the Lutheran Church at the Atoneement at Saugerties on Monday and his sermons were well received by the congregations in attendance. Mr. Hersh has a very pleasing voice and manner in the pulpit. He speaks clearly, and his sermons being full of biblical thought and inspirational character. His pastorate promises to be a successful one, both for the church and congregation.

Glascow Man Arrested.

Police Captain Richter of Saugerties arrested Thomas Pardo of Glascow, Tuesday morning, and arranged him before Police Justice. The charge against him was assault, 3rd degree. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10, the fine suspended pending good behavior. It was alleged Pardo had hit a boy with his fist.

Saugerties Schools Opened.

The Saugerties schools opened Tuesday morning for the fall term. A number of new teachers appear in the faculty list this year. The enrollment of students was large with prospects of an increase before the week opens.

BURGLARS KILL MONTICELLOSLEUTH

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Monticello, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Burglars surprised while robbing an automobile accessory store here early today shot and killed Detective Edward C. Dollard, and escaped in a touring car.

Dollard got the "drop" on the burglars, three in number. They distracted his attention, seized his revolver after a terrific struggle, and shot him through the heart. Detective Frank Conroy was also fired upon.

LEOTTA EXPLAINS THE "GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT"

He's Out of It Because It Has Been Violated.

Editor, The Freeman:
I didn't make the "gentlemen's agreement" useless as Val E. Schrick stated in Monday evening's paper, because I didn't compel the boss barbers to open their shops on Labor Day. They put a notice in the paper they were going to close. Why did they open? Why not keep the agreement they made among themselves?

The main reason why I didn't agree with some of the boss barbers was this: When the late President Harding's funeral took place I told Mr. Schrick I intended to close my shop about one o'clock out of respect for the president. He told me that some other boss barbers wanted to close only during the funeral. So we went to a certain shop and talked it over and finally we decided to close the shops only from three to five o'clock and then reopen for business and Mr. Schrick himself put the notice in The Freeman and The Leader informing the public about the decision made by us.

When the funeral day came Mr. Schrick came over to my shop and told me that some boss barbers went over to see him about closing the shops and would not open until next morning. So when I heard that I felt very bad and much disgusted and I asked him what the public would say about us boss barbers who had already announced we would reopen our shops at 5 o'clock. He admitted that wasn't a good thing to do but as the others wanted to close, so as to avoid argument, we all closed up our shops at 3 o'clock for all afternoon. We disappointed a great many of our patrons. I disliked that sort of business a great deal because if I put anything in the paper I want to live up to it like a man.

As they did not live up to their word, now I intend to run my place according to the union rule and that is the main reason that I opened my shop a half day Monday. If it was not for that reason I would close my shop all day the same as I always did on a legal holiday and give my employees a holiday and more than everything that is coming to them. So I want them not to blame me for it we make any agreement I like to see that we all live up to it like men.

JOSEPH LEOTTA.

Secures Position.

Miss Lena Parys, a graduate of Spencer's Business School, Wall and John streets, has secured a situation as stenographer-typist and office assistant with the Canfield Supply Company, Strand.

Sure Relief FOR INDIGESTION

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

The public schools of this city will open Monday morning, September 10. The teachers will take their respective places on Friday morning, September 7, at 9 o'clock, to attend to all necessary arrangements for the opening of the school rooms.

The office of the superintendent will be open daily with the exception of Saturday and Sunday to transact such business that might properly come up for consideration.

NO AMERICANS LOST AT TOKIO

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 5.—No Americans are believed to have lost their lives in Tokio, though it is reported that some were killed in Yokohama. Cyrus E. Woods, American ambassador, cabled acting Secretary of State Phillips today. Wood estimated the total dead in the city of Tokio at 10,000 but 10,000 is a figure far below unofficial estimates of the past two days.

The situation in Yokohama, the city hardest hit by the earthquake, was described as "exceedingly serious." But the ambassador said it was still impossible to tell how many Americans had been killed or injured.

The food situation remains acute throughout the stricken area despite the arrival of some ships with supplies.

Wood made another urgent request that supplies be rushed from the Philippines and he was advised this morning by cable and wireless from the state department that ships were leaving Manila today with food, medical equipment and other material.

FIRST LIST OF FOREIGN DEAD IN JAP 'QUAKE'

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Shanghai, Sept. 5.—The first list of foreigners reported dead at Yokohama was received here today.

The list is as follows:

Max Kirjassoff, American consul, and wife.
American Vice Consul Paul Jenks.
E. G. Babbitt, formerly American commercial attaché, formerly of San Francisco, who arrived two days before the disaster, with wife and two daughters.

Frank, who arrived two days before the disaster.

French Consul General De Jardin.

I. C. Morrison, of Hong Kong, and Shanghai bank.

The Rev. Father Lebaby.

Dr. Edwin Wheeler and Miss H. E. Root, who arrived two days before the disaster.

A. H. Tail, manager of Chartered Bank.

A. D. McDougal, accountant of Chartered Bank.

Dr. R. E. Ishaar of the British consulate.

Miss Katharine Nunes.

Miss Komor.

Miss Kathleen Robinson.

Miss Salade.

Miss Henriques.

Xavier Shrift, Yokohama American consulate attaché, and Mrs. Shrift.

Mrs. H. E. Root, who arrived two days before the disaster, and fire.

H. Horn, British commercial secretary.

Miss Evelyn Mantell, San Francisco school teacher on six months leave. She arrived at Yokohama on the liner President Lincoln two days before the catastrophe.

TURKISH TREASURY TO SELL ITS JEWELS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Angora, Turkey, Sept. 5.—The fabulous collection of jewels owned by the Turkish treasury, including the "throne of Ismail," a massive gold ornament studded with precious gems, is to be sold to aid the country financially. It was announced today.

The measure empowering the sale is under consideration. It is estimated that the "throne of Ismail" alone is worth $20,000,000.

New Paint Shop.

A. L. Swart sign painter has opened a shop at 555 Broadway.

WOOD PLACES TOKIO CASUALTIES AT 10,000

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 5.—A despatch received today by the state department from American Ambassador Wood, sent from Iwak and relayed at San Francisco, was as follows:

"Communications have just been opened up with Yokohama.

"The situation there is exceedingly serious.

"Some Americans are reported to have lost their lives.

"The casualties in Tokio are estimated at 10,000.

"I believe all Americans in Tokio are safe.

"The food situation is acute. Send supplies from Philippines at once as already requested."

VAN WAGENEN'S

Operated by THE ROSS STORES, Inc.

Outfitting the Children

FOR SCHOOL IS DONE HERE AT VERY LITTLE EXPENSE

Gingham Dresses FOR SCHOOL GIRLS

$1.49 to $2.98

Well made dresses for girls of 6 to 16 years. Fast color gingham that stand repeated tubbing without fading. They are so pretty and inexpensive that it is a waste of time and money to make them at home.

BOY'S MADRAS School Blouses

—of Quality
89c

The dollar kind. Attached collar double yoke and double turn back cuffs. Fine quality striped Madras in neat fast color stripes.

SCHOOL DAYS SPECIAL!

Boy's Pants $1.00

Remarkable values and a great saving for parents with boys who are hard on clothes. Corduroy and Wool Tweed Pants. Well made. Strongly stitched taped seams. Pants that will give long service. Sizes 8 to 17 years. $1.50 values.

Boy's Blue Serge Pants

All-wool Navy Blue Serge. Lined throughout. Sizes 8 to 17. $2.50 value. $1.98

MIDDIES FOR GIRLS

$19.8 to $3.98

Wool, flannel and serge middies in regulation style. Navy, Red and Green.

MAN O' WAR MIDDIES $1.49—$1.98

The school girls standby for comfort and good looks. Sloping sides give perfect fit. Fine quality Lonsdale Jean.

Girl's Plain or Pleated Skirts

$2.98 to $3.98

Wool skirts in plain and pleated style. Trimmed with buttons and belt. Some checks, others in plain or plaids.

Unbleached Muslin, yd 14c

Black Rock quality. Very fine weave. Will make sturdy seamed sheets or pillow cases. Bleaches quickly. —22c value.

HERE'S A REAL LIVE VALUE FOR HOUSEWIVES!

NOVELITE FANCY BED SPREADS $2.98

$4.50 is the regular price and a bargain at that. We have just 100 to sell at $2.98 bought by our N. Y. office from a dealer going out of business. Size 90x100 inches which is extra large. Made of strong, easily laundered Dacron with stripes of blue, rose or all white. Splendid for every day use or to add to beauty of guest chamber.

Fancy White Flaxon at 39c to 59c

White Flaxon 32 to 38 inches wide in small neat checks, plaids and dainty stripes. Regular value 50c to 75c. (Good for children's dresses or women's waists.

ORPHEUM THEATRE

6 Great Vaudeville Acts 6

ALL THIS WEEK

FIRST RUN PARAMOUNT PICTURES

TONIGHT'S FEATURE

THOS. H. INCE Presents

CHARLES RAY

—in—

"RED HOT DOLLARS"

INT. NEWS. TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Orpheum Orchestra, Harry Maisenhelder, director.

MATINEE, 2:30 30c—50c

EVENING, 6:45-9 30c—50c

Matinee (Children), 20c.

THURS., FRI. and SAT.

"Broadway Scandals"

Big Musical Comedy Hit of the Season

20 PEOPLE 20

FAST COMPANY OF STEPPERS

COMEDY AND SONGS

Special Scenery and Electrical Effects.

TOMORROW—First Run Paramount Picture.

MADGE KENNEDY in "THE PURPLE HIGHWAY."

Matinee, 2:30 30c—50c

Evening, 6:45-9 30c—50c

Matinee (Children), 20c.

JAPAN'S LOSS IS ESTIMATED

At $2,500,000,000 by Japanese Embassy Here—Will Need Billions of Dollars' Worth of Materials From U. S.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The disaster which swept the island empire of Japan has wrought a minimum property loss of $2,500,000,000. It was estimated at the Japanese embassy here today after a careful study of press dispatches which gave but meagre details of the catastrophe.

It was explained the damage might mount into billions more if later reports show the destruction to be as complete outside Tokio as it was in the capital city.

The minimum estimate of damage was as follows:

Tokio, $1,000,000,000.

Yokohama, $100,000,000.

Nagoya, $50,000,000.

Shipping, $250,000,000.

Other cities, $1,100,000,000.

With at least 10,000,000 living in the path swept by earthquakes, tidal waves, typhoons and fire, embassy officials feared the loss of human lives would reach the highest estimates of 500,000 dead as carried in news dispatches. They pointed out that the congested methods of living in Japanese cities tended to cause greater casualties than in American cities should they be similarly stricken.

Embassy officials also estimated that Japan would need $500,000,000 worth of supplies from the United States in rehabilitating the destroyed cities. Of this total, at least $250,000,000 worth of lumber will be needed, it was said. The remainder will consist of clothing, blankets, factory machinery and foodstuffs.

"The work of rehabilitation will be started at once," an embassy official told International News Service. "At least $250,000,000 worth of lumber will be needed from the United States. We also will need large supplies of food stuff, clothing, tents, blankets and machinery at once."

"Most of the reconstruction work, of course, will be done with lumber as frame dwellings are a peculiar Japanese custom which not even a ## catastrophe such as this one, can change.

Japanese builders are accustomed to buying American lumber because it is cheaper than native supplies and naturally they will turn to the United States in this disaster.

"The work of rehabilitation will be greatly aided by the fact that Osaka, the so-called Pittsburgh of Japan, was not damaged. Many great factories are located there and will be ready to turn out supplies for reconstruction work."

"A complete estimate of the property loss cannot be made at this time because so many details of the disaster are lacking. For instance, the prefecture of Tokio has a maximum property value of $18,500,000,000. The city could be entirely wiped out and yet billions of its value saved, for it includes the ground values, the good will of industries and money."

"On the other hand, many of the shrines and temples and great art collections probably were destroyed. These cannot be replaced even at any cost. One single collection in Tokio, consisting of only a few pieces, was valued at $1,600,000. Such losses, if they occurred, may add billions to any estimate we can make now."

"In the work of reconstruction, Japan can furnish its own labor, and all the work of organization can be accomplished by its own citizens but it will need supplies from all the world and particularly from the United States. This has been such a tragedy that it will only weld closer ties of friendship between our two nations."

Teetzel Sales Manager.

A. E. Teetzel, whose home is in this city, has been made New York district sales manager for the Fuller Brush Company, a very lucrative position. His rise has been rapid. A few years ago he was a theater usher, then a musician, factory inspector, served in the aviation corps during the war, and was salesman and branch manager for the Fuller concern.

Rescued From Drowning.

Julia, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gilmore of MacDonald street, Saugerties, while wading in the lower creek, near the gas company dock, Sunday afternoon, suddenly fell over and got into deep water. She was in danger of drowning and her brother, Charles, who was nearby, plunged in and rescued her.

SAMUEL T. FREEMAN & CO., AUCTIONEERS.

1519-21 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

Public Auction Sale

MACHINERY, EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES

Formerly of the

TANK SHIPBUILDING CORPORATION

NEWBURGH, N. Y., (South End).

Friday, September 14, 1923, at 2 p. m.

(Daylight Saving Time).

ON THE PREMISES.

Sale comprises: Cleveland 48-inch Throat Punches; Massillon Power Punches; Shears; Lathes; Seimond Electric

Welding Outfit, complete with Crocker-Wheeler Motor; Oil

Transformer; Slate Panel; 3 Electric Hoists; 5 Wooden

Derricks; Paragon 42-inch, Type B, Blue Printing Machine;

Chain Hoist; Steel Tank; Pneumatic Tools; Stocks and

Dies; Air Hese; 45 pieces 4-foot square Bending Slabs;

Ford Truck; Velie 7-passenger Touring Car; Office Furniture, etc.

SAMUEL T. FREEMAN & CO., Auctioneers

1519-21 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

3,000 AMERICANS IN ORIENT—MOSTLY SAFE.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Sept. 5.—While the government has no exact figures on the number of Americans in the devastated areas of Japan, inquiries have been made concerning the safety of approximately 3,000 Americans believed or feared to have been in the Orient at the time of the catastrophe, it was learned today.

State department officials pointed out, however, that it is probable that hundreds of those for whom inquiries have been made, will eventually be found not to have been in the disaster zone.

Thought for the Day.

There are people who feel under no obligations to help in any worthy cause unless they are solicited.

DESTROYERS AT YOKOHAMA.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Twelfth district naval headquarters here announced today that destroyer division 42 of the Asiatic fleet, under command of Admiral A. E. Anderson, had arrived at Yokohama. The destroyers will give immediate aid to the suffering people.

PRINCE OF WALES OFF FOR CANADIAN RANCH.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Sept. 5.—Travelling as the Duke of Cornwall, the Prince of Wales departed today for Canada to visit his ranch.

He took the regular boat train from Waterloo station along with scores of other travellers. He was accompanied by three companions. He is sailing on the Empress of France, debarking at Quebec.

Destroyers at Yokohama.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Twelfth district naval headquarters here announced today that destroyer division 42 of the Asiatic fleet, under command of Admiral A. E. Anderson, had arrived at Yokohama. The destroyers will give immediate aid to the suffering people.

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

MARY GRAHAM BONNER

KNIGHT OF THE MIST

Billie Brownie and his brother Bemie were all ready for adventures. A boy and a girl who had wandered into Dreamland that evening had come to pay them a visit. And of course Billie and his brother were particularly anxious to entertain their guests as best they could.

And they were as ready for adventures as were their guests. They had been busy of late and had not had so much time for play and they were quite ready to begin playing at once.

Now the boy and the girl had never had many adventures. They had lived rather lonely lives, though it is true they had made a number of animal friends.

"Well," said the boy as he saw Billie Brownie and his brother, "you are a fat pair, but oh, you do look so jolly."

"How nice of you to say so," the two Brownie brothers replied, and as they did so they hugged each other and fell over on the ground.

"Not hurt, I trust," said the girl.

"Not a bit of it," said the Brownie brothers together, as they picked themselves up.

"I do believe you're Brownies," said the boy.

"You are right," said Billie.

"My name," he added, "is Billie Brownie, and this is my brother Bemie."

He pointed with his left hand to Bemie for his right arm was around Bemie and his right hand was stroking Bemie's shoulder.

"I'm very happy to meet you," said Bemie, making a low bow.

"I'm very happy, too," said the boy.

"And I am also," said the girl.

"So am I," said Billie, "which makes four of us happy. That is two more than two! Ah, I'm an arithmetic scholar, I am."

"Now, they'll think they're back in school if you talk that way," said Bemie.

"I doubt if I'd remind any one very much of school," said Billie, "but then perhaps it would be nice to change the subject."

"And now for our adventures! Our friend, Knight of the Mist, is on his way now. 'Ah, here he comes!'"

And then the girl and the boy met Knight of the Mist. He was the great, great, great, great grandson, Billie Brownie explained, of the greatest old Knight of olden days, who always wore armor.

This Knight wore mist as his armor for he was the brave knight of the air.

"I am ready," said Knight of the Mist. "I hope you are!"

Oh yes, they were ready, so they followed Knight of the Mist. He helped them into his very enormous airship; it was simply huge and looked like a car on a train.

After they had started they stopped off for one of the cows and one of the hens from the farm and the girl's pet cat and the boy's pet dog. Also a rooster was eager to go along, too. So they made quite a party as you can imagine.

Then they adventured up in the clouds and about the clouds. They paid a visit upon His Royal Highness, Sir Skyscraper, who was to be found in a big city. They found him to be a bumptious fellow with a fine opinion of himself and ambitions far greater than he could realize, for he had never really touched the sky with his greatest amount of reaching, but always he went along in his rather tremendous way—yet still not able to approach the sky territory.

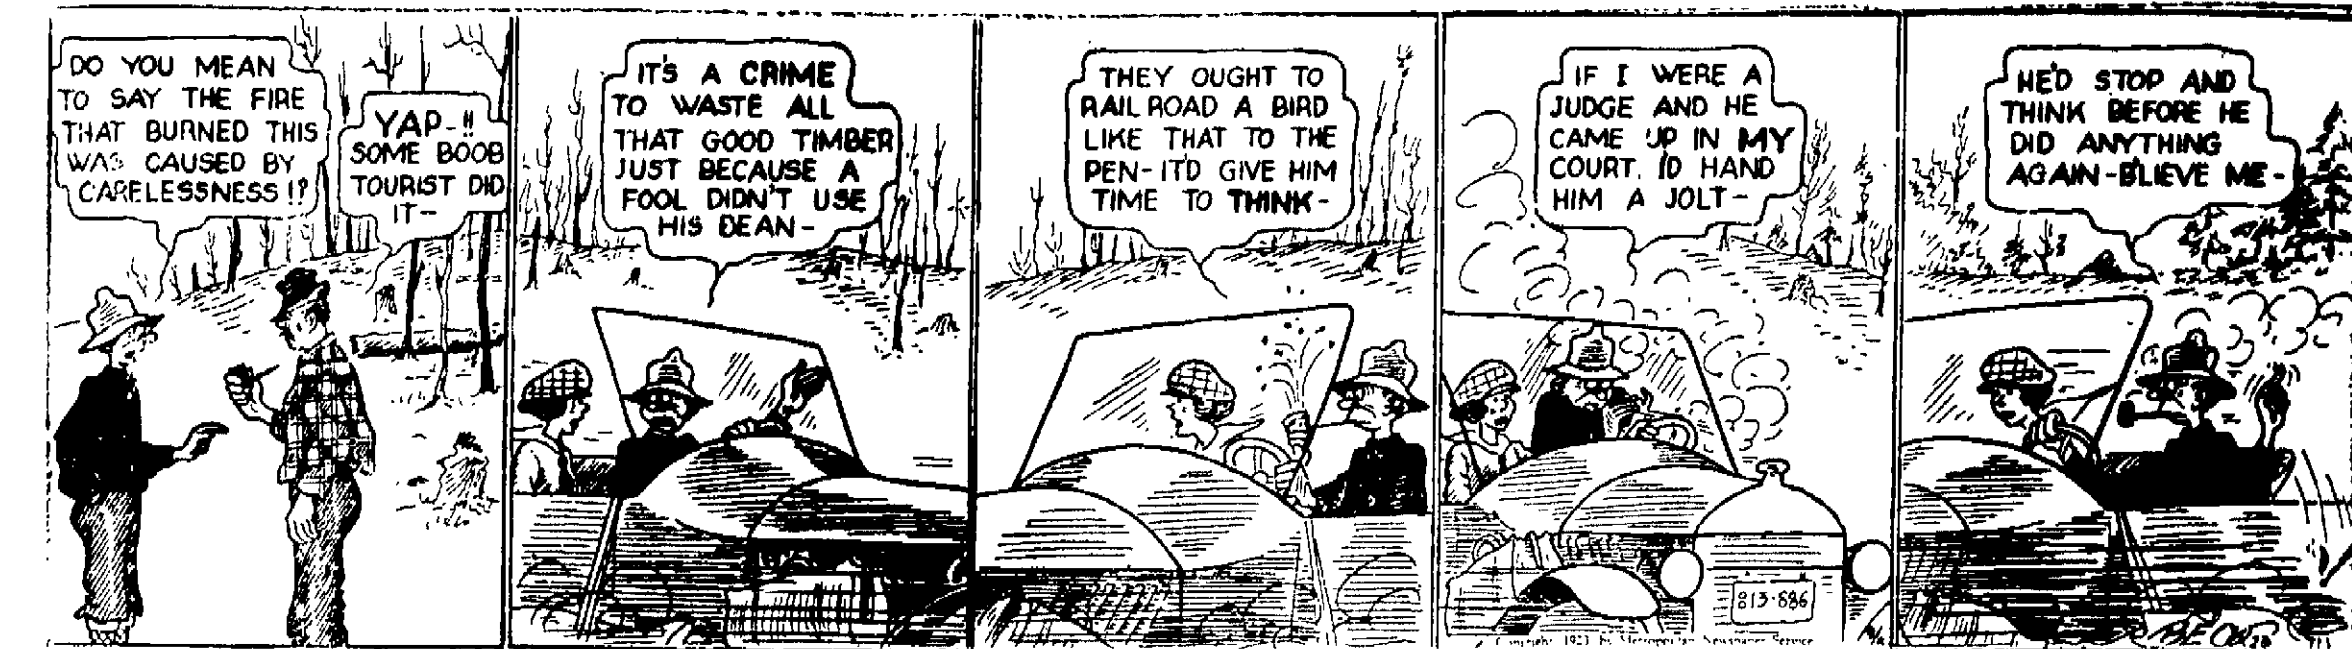

He was like those who are high enough up to be snippy but not high enough up to have common sense! Still, they enjoyed him and they quite admired him in his own way too.

The cow tried to appear as though used to all these modern conveniences and modern advancements which she was now seeing but it was not natural to her. She bemoaned the day she had ever swished her tail at flies, for flies weren't queer like skyscrapers, and she could swish her tail at flies. Skyscrapers didn't notice her tail!

After they had adventured all evening the Knight brought them back and they left their friends and Dreamland. But ever after it seemed to the boy and the girl that the animals who had gone adventuring had somewhat lost their heads over all the traveling for often they saw a certain look in the green eyes of the cat and the soft, mild eyes of the cow, which showed they were dreaming of things above a milk saucer and a milk stool!

"This is My Brother."

GAS BUGGIES—Transcontinental Tour—"It's Different When Somebody Else Does It."

THE KITCHEN CABINET

(© 1922, Western Newspaper Union)

Recipe for Proud Cooks—When you taste a blueberry pie you have just made and feel a thrill of pride at its delicious flavor, always remember that you didn't make the blueberries.

MORE SUMMER DESSERTS

Milk or thin cream with fruit juices fresh or canned and a well-beaten egg white added toward the last of the freezing one has a dish fit for king or queen.

Strawberry Sherbet.—As this fruit is so universally a favorite one cannot go wrong in serving it to any group of people. One quart of this sherbet will serve four to six people. Measure two cups of the crushed fruit, crush it with a potato masher, add one cup of sugar, and let it stand in the ice chest for three hours. Whip one cup of cream and fold into the crushed fruit carefully. Pour into a freezer and freeze as usual.

Strawberry Sherbet.—Take two cups of strawberry pulp made by mashing the berries. Boil one and one-half cups of sugar and two cups of water ten minutes. Soften a half teaspoonful of gelatin in two tablespoons of cold water and add to the hot syrup. Now add the juice of half a lemon and one-half cup of orange juice to the strawberry mixture; add the syrup when cool and freeze. Add the beaten egg white with two tablespoons of sugar when the mixture is partly frozen and continue freezing. Raspberry juice, removing the seeds, may be prepared in the same way and is especially delicious.

Pineapple Cream Sherbet.—Take two cups of grated fresh pineapple, cover with a cup of sugar, let stand three hours, fold in one cup of cream whipped until stiff and freeze.

Apricot Cream Sherbet.—Measure two cups of canned apricots which have been mashed through the potato ricer. Cover with three-fourths of a cup of sugar and let stand three hours. Fold in one cup of cream whipped. The fresh fruit may be used, adding a cup of sugar.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

Salad in Honey Dew Melon Basket.—Prepare the melon by cutting it into a basket. Scoop out the seeds and remove the pulp. Chop the pulp into coarse bits, add pineapple, cherries and a nicely seasoned French dressing. Garnish the melon with a border of curled celery. Serve a bit of the celery with the contents of the melon.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Sept. 4.—The Boy Scouts of Port Ewen attended the big field day at Saugerties Labor Day. They also brought home with them four prizes. First prize for the troop coming the longest distance with the most uniformed boys in line. The next prize they proceeded to win the taps. Third prize in the Paul Revere race. Horses were Carl Hotelling, Robert Torrens, Alanson Short, William Lapine and Howard Galbraith as rider. The next prize was taken in the horse and rider contest, the horse being Kenneth Cutler, the rider, Austin Weedham, and the last prize and the one hardest fought for was the mile relay race, in which they took second place, Chichester just beating them by a few feet. The runners in the race were Hotelling, Lapine, Torrens and Short. So taken all in all, Port Ewen had a very successful day, and the people here should feel very proud of the troop. Saugerties is to be congratulated on the fine reception she gave to the Scouts of Ulster county.

Mrs. H. J. Maquire, formerly Miss Helen Kline of Port Ewen, is the guest of Mrs. Raymond Port on Broadway.

Peter Kehr of Brooklyn is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweigel at Oak Hill.

Adolph Wagensell and Miss Frieda Auwater of Woodhaven, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweigel at Oak Hill, returned to their home Sunday by day boat.

Knappa Council, No. 42, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will meet Wednesday evening, September 5, at 8 o'clock in the council room.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rice and daughter, Helen, of Yonkers are guests of Mrs. Carey Secor on Broadway.

Oscar Wagensell and Miss Elsie Uhl of Woodhaven motored to Oak Hill on Friday and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweigel and returned to their home Monday.

Miss Rose Lamar, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Schweigel at Oak Hill, have returned to their home in Brooklyn.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held Thursday afternoon, September 6, at 3 o'clock in the chapel.

George Burchell of Hoboken, N. J., who has spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweigel at Oak Hill, has returned to his home.

A very important meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will be held at the home of Mrs. John Lynn on Hamilton street, Friday, September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schweigel of Hasbrouck street spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweigel at Oak Hill.

Miss Minnie Schweigel of Oak Hill and Peter Kehr of Brooklyn visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ebbeck at Rhinebeck last week and attended the Dutchess county fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent and daughter Edith, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Everts at Mount Vernon, N. Y., and William Bowman at Paterson, N. J., have returned to their home.

Fred Bruntagim of the Bronx, George Purcell of Brooklyn, Henry Pape and Miss Muriel Vreeland of Staten Island spent a few days last week with Mrs. Pape on the river road.

High Falls Public School opened on Tuesday. On account of the large attendance there are three teachers instead of two. Mrs. Preston Church has the primary grades, Miss Paoline Palen, the intermediate grades and Miss Wright returns as principal.

Miss Pearl Krom, who has been the guest of LeRoy Krom, returned to the city on Thursday.

Mrs. Niesch visited the Kingston Exposition on Thursday.

Mrs. Eli Depuy and Mrs. Martha Charles were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hornbeck one day the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and sons of Kingston spent the week end at the home of her father, John Ayers.

There were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Adams over Labor Day.

Only Because—
DELCO-LIGHT COMPANY is the World's Largest Producer of Electric Light Plants can they make such an offer—

$529.50
Here is the installation you get for $529.50

1. One Delco-Light Plant, the most popular size, Model 866—850 watts capacity, 32 volts (freight paid).
2. One standard Delco-Light Exide Battery with sixteen large capacity cells with extra thick plates and heavy glass jars (freight paid).
3. The installation of the Plant and Battery—except purchaser to furnish concrete base and battery rack.
4. Wiring your house for ten (10) lights to be located anywhere you wish.
5. One power outlet wherever you may want it installed in your house.
6. Standard set of ten (10) drop lights with sockets and the installation of these lights in your house.
7. Ten (10) standard electric light bulbs.

Similar outfit with smaller size plant—Model 608

$432.50
Sold on easy payments.
Liberal discount for cash.

DELCO-LIGHT COMPANY
DAYTON, OHIO

NOW you can get your DELCO-LIGHT
Over 200,000 Satisfied Users

F. W. DeSHAW
Phone, Shokan 11
Ashokan, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jansen over Labor Day.
Mrs. Joseph Yeaple, who has been away visiting, has returned home. Her sister accompanied her and will spend a few days with her at Pleasant View Cottage.
Most of the summer guests have returned to their city homes.
Miss Ella Wynkoop and Preston Church were united in marriage the past week by the Rev. Braithwaite.
The Ananias Club.
"Yes," said the returned tourist, "the scenery and the hotels were even finer than the railroad folder claimed they were."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Used Car Bargains

|                        |             |
|------------------------|-------------|
| Maxwell Touring        | .....$125  |
| Chevrolet Touring      | .....$300  |
| Oakland Touring        | .....$200  |
| Chalmers Touring       | .....$250  |
| Reo Touring            | .....$400  |
| Chandler Sedan         | .....$500  |
| Buick Touring, 7-pass. | .....$500  |
| Buick Roadster         | .....$450  |
| Buick 4, 5-Pass.       | .....$200  |
| Dodge Sedan            | .....$600  |
| Essex Touring          | .....$800  |
| Hudson Tour., 7-Pass.  | .....$1000 |
| Hudson Cab             | .....$400  |

Peter A. Black
10-12 Main St., Kingston, N. Y.
Eagle Garage. Phone 1083.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., in the said County, on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, June 25th, 1923.
DE WYLL ROOSA, Jr.,
Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Henry P. Van DeBogert, late of the town of Woodstock, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of October, 1923.

Dated, April 24th, 1923.
SARAH L. ELMENDORF, Jr.,
As Executor of the estate of Henry P. Van DeBogert, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of William E. Beger, late of the town of Woodstock, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his residence, 263 Albany Avenue, Kingston, in the said County of Ulster, on or before the 15th day of November, 1923.

Dated, May 8, 1923.
HENRY P. VAN DEBOGERT, Jr.,
WILLIAM E. SIMMONS, Executors.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of William E. Beger, late of the town of Woodstock, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his residence, 263 Albany Avenue, Kingston, in the said County of Ulster, on or before the 15th day of November, 1923.

Dated, March 7, 1923.
JOSEPH REYNOLDS,
Executor of the last will and Testament of William E. Beger, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, May 2nd, 1923.
FREDERICK J. ZOLLER,
Executor and Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, May 2nd, 1923.
FREDERICK J. ZOLLER,
Executor and Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, May 2nd, 1923.
FREDERICK J. ZOLLER,
Executor and Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, May 2nd, 1923.
FREDERICK J. ZOLLER,
Executor and Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. George F. Kaufman, Surrogate of Ulster County, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, late of the City of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, the Executor of the estate of said deceased, at his office, corner Strand and Broadway, Kingston, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of December, 1923.

Dated, May 2nd, 1923.
FREDERICK J. ZOLLER,
Executor and Administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Zoller, deceased.

ITCHINGS
See your doctor. Vicks, however, will kill the irritation.
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 million jars sold yearly.

We Are Ready
To turn out that job of printing whenever you need it.
Our Prices Are Right

See Dante, Magician, Opera House, September 10, 11 and 12.

IS GOOD PROVERB

Wise Advice From Persia as to Choosing Friends.

Two to Avoid Are the "Candid" Person and the One Who is Too Easily Offended.

An old Persian proverb runs, "Think twice before you make an enemy, and thrice before you make a friend." True—even if we think that "twice" and "thrice" should be transposed. As a matter of fact, however, they are in their right places.

Most of us, before experience teaches us wisdom, take to ourselves friends far too easily. We continue the friendship because we don't quite know how to end it; but in our hearts we wish certain of our "friends" a thousand miles away—permanently!

There's the painfully "candid friend" for a start. He—or she—tells us of our faults, our defects, our shortcomings, and rubs in hard all the things we know, but would like to forget!

"I'm sure no one would tell you but myself, old man, but do you know you are getting fat?"

Or when a new hat appears—"My dear, I know you don't mind what I say, but it doesn't suit you a bit! It would be all right for a girl of sixteen, but—"

Had I my time over again I would never have one of these candid friends, says a writer in London Answers. I've searched my memory and cannot remember when candid praise was given. It is always criticism. Candid friends are life-spoilers. Keep them out of your life.

Then there's the easily offended friend! Never have a friend of that type. Or if you have any, seize the first opportunity of letting them go out of your life. They will age you, worry you, and make a slave of you if they remain. You will always be apologizing, explaining, smoothing them down, begging their pardons. Your soul will be free to do what you like. They might be "offended!"

They are tyrants, and their tyranny grows worse the more you pander to their "touchiness." Get rid of them! Buy—as I did—a new hat, and tell them nothing about it. They are sure to be "offended," and then let them remain so.

Finally, there's the "friend" who uses you when her real friend isn't available. "Uses" is the right word! You are in reserve—to be used as required. That type should be barred, too.

Choose your friends carefully!

Book Agents' Best Field.

When Mrs. Smith moved out into a sparsely settled section of Brooklyn she thought one advantage of her location would be freedom from agents. But she was mistaken; they came thicker than ever.

First appeared the milk company solicitors, then book and magazine agents, mop and brush men, charity solicitors and then the vacuum cleaner agents. The vacuum men seemed to come in relays or waves. Mrs. Smith already had a patent sweeper, but she was always forced to answer the doorbell and say no to the agents, says the New York Sun and Globe.

Seeing her hopes of quiet and isolation of life in the suburbs blasted, Mrs. Smith the other day asked one of the agents why she was visited by so many salesmen.

"Oh," said he, "agents always make a specialty of thinly populated districts. We figure you folks out here don't have many of the latest things. It's our best field."

Eyes Only on One Side of Head.

Both eyes on the same side of the head is the "freak" distinction of flounders and scies. In these species of fish the head is unsymmetrically formed, the cranium being badly twisted in form. The body is strongly compressed, and the side in which the eyes are located is uppermost in all the actions of the fish. This upper side, be it right or left, is colored, while the eyeside is white, or nearly so. The body of the real young flounder rests upright in the water, a fact well known to students of the finny tribes. As the flounder grows older there is a tendency to turn to one side, and the lower eye begins its migration to the other side. The movement of the eye in the tropical species is easily followed, as this genus reached a larger size than do most flounders before this change takes place. The larva is symmetrical, and in all cases transparent.

Selecting Talent.

The director went out on the lot and bawled for a fat actress. They sent him a fat actress.

"Have you a fur coat?" he asked. "Yes," she replied.

"I'll rent it from you for $10 a day," said the director.

He then bawled for a fatter actress and went through the same line of conversation with her.

"What in heck are you driving at?" demanded the general manager.

"We're filming a big Alaska scene tomorrow. Our lovely heroine will wear three fur coats—her own, which fits her, and two on top of that."

Hard Luck.

Our pet peevish is this: After having spent one dull, lonesome week of our vacation at a farmhouse, to have two "peaches" arrive there on the very same train we are taking back home. —Boston Transcript.

Home Stealers.

The hermit crab is a confirmed user of second-hand homes, says Nature Magazine. It lives in old snail shells. Here it is protected from enemies, since only its forelegs and pincers protrude.

D.B. Carson, INR.

D. B. Carson, Commissioner of Navigation in the Department of Commerce and Director of Uncle Sam's Radio Service, supervises all the land and ship radio stations within the territory of the United States, which, exclusive of sets used for receiving and not licensed, number more than 30,000.

SOLDIER'S NERVES ON EDGE

Veterans Will Understand and Excuse Private O'Grady's Unnecessary Rousing of the Camp.

Veterans of the great war who served in the old front-line trenches in France will be able to sympathize with Private O'Grady. Some of them can remember seeing the posts that held the barbed wire out in front come together on a moonlight night and advance in a stealthy and threatening manner. They know how they felt as evening came and they prepared to "stand to." They can understand how O'Grady felt when after a day of hard fighting under a blistering Philippine sun he was assigned to do sentry duty.

The battalion camp was not more than a quarter of a mile from a curving beach, and O'Grady's post was at the water's edge. As darkness fell and the stars came out he felt weak and depressed. He glanced at the line of a fire-crested wave and watched it charge toward the shore. He glanced at a flat rock lying some dozen paces away. What! Did the rock move? It certainly did!

He looked in the opposite direction. Another flame-tipped wave was rolling toward a number of rocks lying a short distance from the water. Those rocks moved too! Very slowly they started to meet the incoming wave. He shouted "Halt!" and brought his gun to bear.

The rocks halted, and O'Grady rubbed his eyes. What had happened to him? He glanced back over his shoulder toward camp. A rock directly behind him was coming toward him. Ah! Sneaking up to hole him in the back! O'Grady rushed madly at it and dashed the butt of his gun against its hard surface. Then he mopped his forehead. Just a common rock on the sand!

He looked up and down the shore. There they were again! Rocks everywhere were moving toward the water—edging, creeping, crawling by ones, by twos, by threes and in large groups! Then the sentinel's nerves gave way. The whole battalion was awakened by his yelling like a Comanche as his rifle spat fire in the darkness.

When it was safe to approach him it took half an hour to calm him and to prove to him that his treacherous, traveling rocks were only immense but innocent turtles making their nightly visit to the water in search of food.—Youth's Companion.

Justifying Shakespeare's Will.

Little as is generally known about the life of Shakespeare, there are certain legends that everyone has heard. Now Joseph Quincy Adams in his "Life of William Shakespeare" has explained away a large portion of these legends. He didn't believe that Shakespeare was chased out of Stratford for deer poaching, or that he held horses in the rain before the doors of London theaters, or that he had any difficulties with the "dark lady," or that he had anything but the most solicitous affection for his wife when he willed her the second-best bed. The best bed, Professor Adams tells us, was usually an ornate and unused affair, reserved for guests, and Mrs. Shakespeare, being at the time an invalid, past sixty, would have been more comfortable in the bed she was used to. Also, it is not to be assumed that the bed was all she got from the Shakespeare estate; the law explicitly providing a handsome dowry right. It would not have occurred to Shakespeare to specify the amount in money and chattels she was to receive in the will.

Corn S

Just Say Blue-jay

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. Stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in clear liquid and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

At your druggist

Our Own Super-Power System

The number of articles that are appearing in the newspapers and magazines setting forth the advantages of great interconnected electric systems and the development of water power resources, indicates the importance attached to this subject. One of the plans being featured is the so-called SUPER-POWER SYSTEM—a plan for tying in all the important sources of electric supply and distribution in the North Atlantic States. Such a plan if carried out would require many years of work and the expenditure of upwards of a billion dollars. The benefits derived from its operation would be correspondingly large, enabling the saving of millions of tons of coal yearly; the keeping down of operating costs and, thru the electrification of railroad lines, great additional capacity for freight and passenger traffic.

While the discussion of this project has been going on, the management of the Central Hudson System has gone ahead with an electric development in the Hudson River Valley, which has been designed and built with reference to any larger plan that may be carried out, and which will give to this section the benefits that may be expected on a much larger scale if the Superpower System is ever realized.

During the past twenty years, the lines of the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company and its predecessor have been constantly extended into new territory. Connections have been made with neighboring utilities and thru the United Hudson Electric Corporation an interconnected system has been developed that serves practically all the important communities in the Central Hudson Valley.

This interconnected system enables the use of only the most efficient units for generating current and the best and most practical use of available water power with the consequent saving of

It has standardized the electric service over a large region, giving to the smaller communities the same class of service and electric facilities that are ordinarily associated only with the larger cities. Through it, rates to the great majority of customers served have been kept at practically the same figure even tho the cost of almost every item that goes into production has increased enormously.

These and other economies resulting from the interconnection have enabled the companies of the Central Hudson System to go thru the stress of the war period with a good record of service to the communities of the Valley.

CENTRAL HUDSON SYSTEM
KINGSTON GAS & ELECTRIC CO.
611 BROADWAY

Paint for this big barn less than $16.00

YOU begin to realize how far Certain-teed paint goes when you see that only 10 gallons are needed for a barn like this (72' x 34'). If you have a barn about this size, you can safely figure that about $16 worth of this paint will give it two good coats. On any other buildings needing paint we will be glad to give you estimates if you will bring in the measurements.

There is lasting satisfaction in using Certain-teed paint. It is made from the best ingredients and mixed thoroughly and accurately by machines. Every gallon measures up to the same high standard.

Certain-teed

| Wagon and Implement Paint | Barn, Bridge and Roof Paint | Auto Top and Seat Dressing |
|---------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------|
| No. 50 Black              | No. 461 Red                 | No. 714 Black              |
| Per qt. 80c               | Per gal. $1.60             | Per qt. $1.05             |

Buy it at Paint Headquarters

FORSYTH & DAVIS, Inc.
307 WALL ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.

Peaches! Peaches!

ALBERTAS AND GEORGIA BELLES

Finest Flavor. Come and try them.

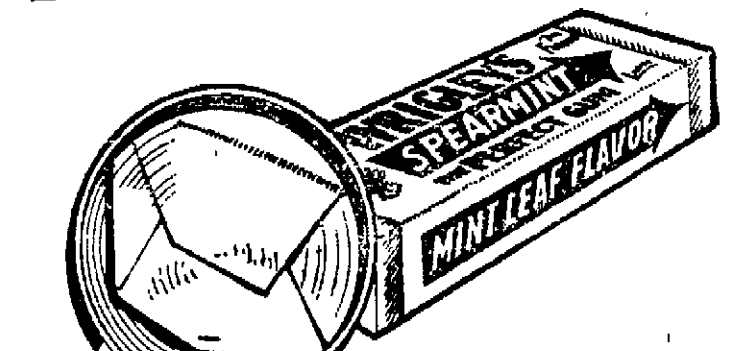

THIS WILL BE OUR

BIG PEACH WEEK

They are going fast. Won't some of you good people come and help us pick them? Come early today.

L. M. HERMAN, Ulster Park, N. Y.

WRIGLEY'S

Sealed!

At great expense we developed the product to meet our ideals in quality and flavor.

Then we spared no expense to make the package worthy of the contents.

Sealed Tight—Kept Right

Pure chicle and other ingredients of highest quality obtainable, made under modern sanitary conditions.

Keeps teeth white
Aids digestion

After Every Meal

It is wise to check over your insurance requirements at regular periods.

Property values change, you make improvements and purchase new things. These all represent money—an investment that fire may wipe out.

It is the job of the agency to know property values and insurance, and to help you to insure against fire loss in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

A phone call today may save you loss tomorrow.

Let this agency check up on your insurance requirements.

PARDEE'S INSURANCE AGENCY
6 BROADWAY - KINGSTON

All Cooks Look Alike

to the hungry man, but what a sad disappointment when the "kitchen queen" quits suddenly and the table looks anything but satisfying to a zestful appetite. When in doubt as to what to do, use The Freeman's "Help Wanted" Cent-a-Word Department.

FAMOUS CONJURER HERE NEXT WEEK

Dante, famous European conjurer, who will appear under the management of Thurston, greatest of American magicians, at the Kingston Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is the son of an army officer who was stationed in India for a great many years. The unusual psychic powers and magical talents which he displayed as a youth of fourteen attracted the attention of an old Hindu mystic and initiate, who induced him to join a band of Mahatmas, who made their headquarters in the fastnesses of the Himalaya mountains. One day while watching the boy perform one of his occult illusions the old Hindu said "It is for you to go to the west and show the great peoples there the power of the mind and soul over the body. Go, and you will instruct and enthrall—and you will be acclaimed as one of the world's great magicians."

Featured in his performance are such mysteries and illusions as, "The Ghost Woman," psychic phenomenon of the age. You may ask her any question. She is said to be unsurpassed as an exponent of mental telepathy. Also Alvin's Six Musical Wizards, the Mysterious Chinese Fountain, Creation, the Phantom Woman, the Miracle, the Great East Indian Rope Trick, the Vanishing Piano, the Lady and the Lion and the Spirit Cabinet.

Friendly Philosophy.

Many a great man has died believing himself pignetically unknown, and many an unknown man has died believing himself great. No man can sum up his own life's work and be both judge and the judged to any marked degree of certainty.—J. E. F., in Cincinnati Enquirer.

NO FEAR OF TEACHER SENDING HER HOME

I USE KIL-VE on her head. If all mothers did the same, children would not have vermin on their heads. KIL-VE is a non-oily, non-irritating, non-toxic vermin destroyer; doesn't interfere with color or growth of hair. No comb needed if KIL-VE is used. Don't be ashamed to ask for it. At all drug stores—25c, 50c and $1.00.

KIL-VE

DESTROYS VERMIN ON CHILDREN'S HEADS

Baked in a Bakery

with the old fashioned care of bakers who attend the same ovens every day, Drake's Cake provides good food and adds zest to the sweeter end of the meal. Good cake is not cheap and cheap cake is not good. Drake's Cake is not made in a factory for your baby

Soothe baby's moist, easily-chafed skin with

Johnson's Baby Powder

Best for Baby—Best for You

Try the Drug Store First

JAMES J. JEFFRIES AS LECTURER

James J. Jeffries, pugilist, rancher and student, is shown in a characteristic pose as a lecturer. The once invincible heavyweight champ says that clenched fists are more effective to drive home facts than airy gestures. Jeffries plans to tour the country with Prof. A. F. Flinterer to speak on "The Unification of the White Race."

Dundee After Leonard

Johnny Dundee wants to take Benny Leonard's crown. Leonard seeks Mickey Walker's welter-weight title and Walker is after Harry Greb.

Leonard may beat Walker and Leonard may beat Greb for Benny is just as fast as Greb and a harder puncher, but Dundee beating Leonard is as much out of the question as Leonard beating Jack Dempsey, says the Detroit News.

That may seem far fetched, but if they meet the forecast will come true—just as true as the meeting.

Yanks' Star Catcher

Photograph of Hofmann, the star catcher of the New York Yanks. Hofmann replaced Wallie Schang, and old timers who have seen him perform say that he is the equal of either Schang or Ray Schalk.

Beals Becker Still Is Playing Good Baseball

Beals Becker, at one time outfielder for the New York Giants, also with Pittsburgh and Boston in the National league, is still playing baseball. He is a member of the Kansas City American association team and doing plenty of hitting.

Becker, who knows something about batting, recently said that the major leagues today lacked high-class pitching and that no one in either major loop came near the standard of Christy Mathewson or Mordred Brown, two pitchers that Becker could not hit.

The statement settles nothing. It simply adds fuel to a spirited argument.

Planes Will Drop Down to Take on Gas Supply

"In twenty-five years," remarked Eddie Rickenbacker, famous as racer and aviator, "planes will drop down and take on gas just as autos do now, and there will be garages that specialize in airplane repair work."

"Airplanes can go anywhere there is atmosphere," continued Eddie, "and for that reason they will be the leading means of travel in a quarter of a century."

Best Team of Home-Run Hitters in Big League

Bating players on 1922 averages, the best team of home-run hitters in the major leagues consist of the following stars: A. P. Cooper, pitcher, 4; Henline, catcher, 14; Kelly first base, 17; Hornsby, second base, 42; Fletcher, shortstop, 7; Baker, third base, 7; Ken Williams, 30; Clarence Walker, 37, and Babe Ruth, 35, as outfielders.

Joe Burman Given Title

Joe Burman, bantamweight of Chicago, was named by the New York boxing commission to succeed Joe Lynch as world champion of his class, following the latter's suspension by the board for failure to accept within six months the challenge of Burman. Joe is now recognized as the 116-pound champion of New York state.

A Long Sermon.

Mrs. V. A. S. reports that her colored maid on returning from morning service remarked: "Dat man sho did preach long; he must a-preach from Generous to Regulations."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Attacked by Lion. A British railway engineer, named Fane, engaged on the construction of the new Usin-Globu line, was returning to the construction camp when he walked into a lair of a lioness with two cubs. Before he could fire the lioness leaped on him and severely mauled him. Then the beast fled.

A New Maxwell Creation That is a Revelation of Beauty and Value

The New Maxwell Special Sport Model

A new Special Sport Model, the latest Maxwell creation, is now on exhibition in our sales rooms and is challenging the attention of everyone interested in the most advanced ideas in motor cars.

Never has the word "special" been applied more aptly and justly than in designating this newest addition to the good Maxwell line.

Here is a car that is such an utter revelation in every respect that it stands alone and apart as a special creation.

First of all be prepared for a car of genuine and fascinating beauty that immediately arrests the eye.

The body is a beautiful gray green, with disc steel wheels painted and striped to match. The upholstery is a rich two-tone leather in complete harmony with the body and fittings. The shimmering full nickel-plated parts give a final touch of distinction.

Here is, in fact, a spirited and dashing expression of the designing art that absolutely compels whole-hearted admiration.

But the true revelation of what Maxwell, with its vast resources, has accomplished comes only when you have made a thorough examination of this Special Sport model; checked up all its features and considered the extraordinary price.

Never before has a car been offered which reveals so large a measure of value.

Designed, finished and equipped with a lavish hand, it sets a new mark, made possible only by an organization with unlimited resources.

After you have feasted your eyes on the rare beauty of this new model, you will note these impressive features—

Genuine full grained, gray-green Colonial leather, with deep upholstery, providing unusual comfort.

Cowl lamps of attractive design to match the regular lighting fixtures, all full nickel-plated as are the sturdy double bar bumpers and the wheel bands.

A spare tire mounted on the left side, protected by a gray-green tire cover matching the body color. Also rubberized top of either olive green or black, as you choose.

A commodious trunk, finished in green, conveniently mounted on a special rack at the rear, double bar bumpers both front and rear, a handsome water indicator and snug fitting curtains, which store folded flat in the back of the front seat, are other features that will impress you with what a complete and finely equipped car this new Special Sport model of the good Maxwell really is.

Come in at your earliest convenience and examine it. Check all these features. Make your comparisons—any you like. We are confident you will find this latest good Maxwell establishes an entirely new standard and that there is nothing like it at anywhere near the price.

Prices, Touring Car, $795 Special Sport Touring, $975. F. O. B. Detroit, War Tax to be added

STUYVESANT GARAGE

750 CLINTON AVE.

Phone 1176.
OPEN EVENINGS.

KINGSTON, N. Y.

The Good MAXWELL

Prince Yamashina, Ambassador Woods

Grave fears have been expressed as to the safety of Cyrus E. Woods, United States Ambassador to Japan, who was believed to have been in Tokyo when the Japanese capital was destroyed. Mr. Woods is shown here with Prince Yamashina, a prince of the royal house of Japan, who was killed in Tokyo. Prince Yamashina was a high officer in the Japanese Navy. Ambassador Woods later reported he and his entire staff were saved.

Footish to Believe All One Hears. Let the greater part of the news thou hearest be the least part of what thou believest.—Quarles.

Kept Under Pressure. A cork 300 feet below the surface of the water will not rise again, owing to pressure of water.

To most everybody 30 x 3½ means USCO

NATURALLY USCO'S could hardly have delivered such money's worth—tire after tire—without making a clean sweep.

It's been a pretty performance every time—no two opinions about that.

And no two opinions about what tire to get again after a man has once used USCO.

United States Tires are Good Tires

USCO Where to buy U.S. Tires

Trade Mark
Central Garage
Columbia Garage
A. Cerasano
Eagle Garage Inc.
F. W. Ford
Homer C. Kuhlmann Inc.
R. & S. Mann
The Jas. Millard & Son Co.
Marshall Rooks
Southard-Reichert Inc.
Geo. C. Smith
Ulster Garage

Use FREEMAN advertising regularly and conservatively and results will surely follow.

Just One More

Week of the Close Out Prices on Odd Pieces of China and Glassware.

Gregory & Co.

THE BROWN MOUSE

By HERBERT QUICK

(Copyright by The Boston Herald Company)

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I.—Jennie Woodruff, a young girl, is introduced to the world of the farm hand, because of her special condition and poor prospects. She is introduced to the world of the farm hand, because of her special condition and poor prospects.

CHAPTER II.—More as a joke than otherwise Jim is selected as teacher of the Woodruff district school.

CHAPTER III.—Jim, in his new position, sets out to make staunch friends of his pupils, especially two boys, Newton Bronson and "Buddy" Simms, the latter the son of a shiftless farmer. Colonel Woodruff, Jennie's father, has little faith in Jim's ideas of improving the possibilities of expert school teaching, for which he is ridiculed by many.

CHAPTER IV.—Jim's conduct of the school, where he endeavors to teach the children the wonders of nature and some of the scientific methods of farming, as well as "book learning," is condemned.

CHAPTER V.—Jennie Woodruff is nominated for the position of county superintendent of schools. The school board, however, is opposed to Jim and his innovations.

CHAPTER VI.—At a public meeting Jim roundly condemns the methods of teaching in the rural schools, and makes no friends thereby.

CHAPTER VII.—A delegation of prominent women condemn Jim's method of teaching, but he is roundly defended by his pupils, especially Newton Bronson.

CHAPTER VIII.—Jim has Christmas dinner at Colonel Woodruff's, and listening to him, Jennie begins to do some thinking concerning his ability and his prospects.

CHAPTER IX.—In the evening Jim, as well as he knows how, courts Jennie, without, however, making much progress, though she is quickly losing her poor opinion of him.

CHAPTER X.—Jennie, elected county superintendent of schools, receives a letter from Jim, in which he complains of teaching, and she is compelled formally to ask for his resignation. After she has left, Jim is visited by Colonel Woodruff, who strongly urges him to resign, and Jim agrees to resign, for a while at least.

CHAPTER XI.—A meeting of the school board, which had been called to "get" Jim, is confronted by Jennie, who upholds him. He conducts an examination of the board, and, to prove that he is not neglecting their "book learning," by the introduction of other subjects which he considers of importance. The splendid showing made by the children converts many, who had doubted, to his views.

CHAPTER XII.—The novel ideas which Jim has introduced have been talked about outside the county, and he is invited to deliver an address at a meeting of the state university, which invites him to deliver an address at a meeting of the state university.

CHAPTER XIII.—Professor Withers is impressed by many of Jim's innovations, and he is informed by Colonel Woodruff and Jennie, somewhat to the astonishment of both. The school board, however, is still opposed to Jim, and he is forced to acknowledge to himself.

CHAPTER XIV.—Feigning sickness, Newton Bronson, youngest son of Jim's father, is introduced to the school board, and he is informed by Colonel Woodruff and Jennie, somewhat to the astonishment of both. The school board, however, is still opposed to Jim, and he is forced to acknowledge to himself.

CHAPTER XV.—Jim convinces the farmers of the district of the advantages to be derived from a co-operative creamery, and it is agreed to establish one. His rise to a position of leadership in the community, and his high responsibility, has made a distinct difference in Jennie's feelings toward him. While she is forced to acknowledge to herself.

(Continued From Yesterday's Daily)

CHAPTER XVI

Jim Goes to Ames.

Jim had never felt more the upstart uneducated farm-hand than when he was introduced to that audience at Ames by Professor Withers, nor more completely disgraced than when he concluded his remarks. Even the applause was to him a kindly effort on the part of the audience to comfort him in his failure. His only solace was the look in Jennie's eyes.

"Young man," said an old farmer who wore thick glasses and looked at Jim with a look of surprise.

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

"You made the best address of the meeting; and you did it because you forgot your speech," insisted Jennie.

"Does anybody else think so?"

"Why, Jim! You must learn to believe in what you have done. Even Con Bonner says it was the best. He says he didn't think you had it in ye!"

This advice from her to "believe in what you have done"—wasn't there something new in Jennie's attitude here? Wasn't his belief in what he was doing precisely the thing which had made him such a nuisance to the county superintendent? However, Jim couldn't stop to answer the question which popped up in his mind.

"What does Professor Withers say?" he asked.

"He's delighted—silly!"

"Silly!" How wonderful it was to be called "silly"—in that tone.

"I shouldn't have forgotten the speech if it hadn't been for this darned bolted shirt and collar, and for wearing a cravat," urged Jim in extenuation.

"You ought to've worn them around the house for a week before coming," said Jennie. "Why didn't you ask my advice?"

"I will, next time, Jennie," said Jim. "I didn't suppose I needed a bittin'—but I guess I did!"

Jennie ran away then to ask Nils Hansen and Bettina to join their dinner party. She had a sudden access of friendliness for the Hansens. Nils refused because he was going out to see the college herds fed; but at Jennie's urgent request, reinforced by pats and hugs, Bettina consented. Jennie was very happy, and proved herself a beaming hostess. The dean devoted himself to Bettina—and Jim found out afterward that this inquiring gentleman was getting at the mental processes of a specimen pupil in one of the new kind of rural schools, in which he was only half inclined to believe. He thanked Jim for his speech, and said it was "most suggestive and thought-provoking," and as the party broke up slipped into Jim's hand a check for the honorarium. It was not until then that Jim felt quite sure that he was actually to be paid.

Mr. Hofmyer was waiting to give Jim the final convincing proof that he had produced an effect with his speech.

"Do you teach the kind of school you lay out in your talk?" he asked.

"I try to," said Jim, "and I believe I do."

"Well," said Mr. Hofmyer, "that's the kind of education I believe in. I keep school back in Pennsylvania fifty years ago, and I made the scholars measure things, and weigh things, and apply their studies as far as I could."

"All good teachers have always done that," said Jim. "Froebel, Pestalozzi, Colonel Parker—they all had the idea which is at the bottom of my work; 'learn to do by doing,' and connecting up the school with life."

"M-h-m," grunted Mr. Hofmyer. "I hadn't been able to see how Latin connects up with a high-school kid's life—unless he can find a Latin settlement somewhere and get a job clerkin' in a store."

"But it used to relate to life," said Jim, "the life of the people who made Greek and Latin a part of everybody else's education as well as their own. Latin and Greek were the only languages in which anything worth much was written, you know. But now—"

Jim spread out his arms as if to take in the whole world—"science, the marvelous literature of our tongue in the last three centuries! And to make a child learn Latin with all that, a thousand times richer than all the literature of Latin, lying unused before him!"

"Know any Latin?" asked Mr. Hofmyer.

Jim blushed, as one caught in condemning what he knows nothing about.

"I-I have studied the grammar, and read 'Caesar,' he faltered, "but that isn't much. I had no teacher, and I had to work pretty hard, and it didn't go very well."

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

"You made the best address of the meeting; and you did it because you forgot your speech," insisted Jennie.

"Does anybody else think so?"

"Why, Jim! You must learn to believe in what you have done. Even Con Bonner says it was the best. He says he didn't think you had it in ye!"

This advice from her to "believe in what you have done"—wasn't there something new in Jennie's attitude here? Wasn't his belief in what he was doing precisely the thing which had made him such a nuisance to the county superintendent? However, Jim couldn't stop to answer the question which popped up in his mind.

"What does Professor Withers say?" he asked.

"He's delighted—silly!"

"Silly!" How wonderful it was to be called "silly"—in that tone.

"I shouldn't have forgotten the speech if it hadn't been for this darned bolted shirt and collar, and for wearing a cravat," urged Jim in extenuation.

"You ought to've worn them around the house for a week before coming," said Jennie. "Why didn't you ask my advice?"

"I will, next time, Jennie," said Jim. "I didn't suppose I needed a bittin'—but I guess I did!"

Jennie ran away then to ask Nils Hansen and Bettina to join their dinner party. She had a sudden access of friendliness for the Hansens. Nils refused because he was going out to see the college herds fed; but at Jennie's urgent request, reinforced by pats and hugs, Bettina consented. Jennie was very happy, and proved herself a beaming hostess. The dean devoted himself to Bettina—and Jim found out afterward that this inquiring gentleman was getting at the mental processes of a specimen pupil in one of the new kind of rural schools, in which he was only half inclined to believe. He thanked Jim for his speech, and said it was "most suggestive and thought-provoking," and as the party broke up slipped into Jim's hand a check for the honorarium. It was not until then that Jim felt quite sure that he was actually to be paid.

Mr. Hofmyer was waiting to give Jim the final convincing proof that he had produced an effect with his speech.

"Do you teach the kind of school you lay out in your talk?" he asked.

"I try to," said Jim, "and I believe I do."

"Well," said Mr. Hofmyer, "that's the kind of education I believe in. I keep school back in Pennsylvania fifty years ago, and I made the scholars measure things, and weigh things, and apply their studies as far as I could."

"All good teachers have always done that," said Jim. "Froebel, Pestalozzi, Colonel Parker—they all had the idea which is at the bottom of my work; 'learn to do by doing,' and connecting up the school with life."

"M-h-m," grunted Mr. Hofmyer. "I hadn't been able to see how Latin connects up with a high-school kid's life—unless he can find a Latin settlement somewhere and get a job clerkin' in a store."

"But it used to relate to life," said Jim, "the life of the people who made Greek and Latin a part of everybody else's education as well as their own. Latin and Greek were the only languages in which anything worth much was written, you know. But now—"

Jim spread out his arms as if to take in the whole world—"science, the marvelous literature of our tongue in the last three centuries! And to make a child learn Latin with all that, a thousand times richer than all the literature of Latin, lying unused before him!"

"Know any Latin?" asked Mr. Hofmyer.

Jim blushed, as one caught in condemning what he knows nothing about.

"I-I have studied the grammar, and read 'Caesar,' he faltered, "but that isn't much. I had no teacher, and I had to work pretty hard, and it didn't go very well."

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

"You made the best address of the meeting; and you did it because you forgot your speech," insisted Jennie.

"Does anybody else think so?"

"Why, Jim! You must learn to believe in what you have done. Even Con Bonner says it was the best. He says he didn't think you had it in ye!"

This advice from her to "believe in what you have done"—wasn't there something new in Jennie's attitude here? Wasn't his belief in what he was doing precisely the thing which had made him such a nuisance to the county superintendent? However, Jim couldn't stop to answer the question which popped up in his mind.

"What does Professor Withers say?" he asked.

"He's delighted—silly!"

"Silly!" How wonderful it was to be called "silly"—in that tone.

"I shouldn't have forgotten the speech if it hadn't been for this darned bolted shirt and collar, and for wearing a cravat," urged Jim in extenuation.

"You ought to've worn them around the house for a week before coming," said Jennie. "Why didn't you ask my advice?"

"I will, next time, Jennie," said Jim. "I didn't suppose I needed a bittin'—but I guess I did!"

Jennie ran away then to ask Nils Hansen and Bettina to join their dinner party. She had a sudden access of friendliness for the Hansens. Nils refused because he was going out to see the college herds fed; but at Jennie's urgent request, reinforced by pats and hugs, Bettina consented. Jennie was very happy, and proved herself a beaming hostess. The dean devoted himself to Bettina—and Jim found out afterward that this inquiring gentleman was getting at the mental processes of a specimen pupil in one of the new kind of rural schools, in which he was only half inclined to believe. He thanked Jim for his speech, and said it was "most suggestive and thought-provoking," and as the party broke up slipped into Jim's hand a check for the honorarium. It was not until then that Jim felt quite sure that he was actually to be paid.

Mr. Hofmyer was waiting to give Jim the final convincing proof that he had produced an effect with his speech.

"Do you teach the kind of school you lay out in your talk?" he asked.

"I try to," said Jim, "and I believe I do."

"Well," said Mr. Hofmyer, "that's the kind of education I believe in. I keep school back in Pennsylvania fifty years ago, and I made the scholars measure things, and weigh things, and apply their studies as far as I could."

"All good teachers have always done that," said Jim. "Froebel, Pestalozzi, Colonel Parker—they all had the idea which is at the bottom of my work; 'learn to do by doing,' and connecting up the school with life."

"M-h-m," grunted Mr. Hofmyer. "I hadn't been able to see how Latin connects up with a high-school kid's life—unless he can find a Latin settlement somewhere and get a job clerkin' in a store."

"But it used to relate to life," said Jim, "the life of the people who made Greek and Latin a part of everybody else's education as well as their own. Latin and Greek were the only languages in which anything worth much was written, you know. But now—"

Jim spread out his arms as if to take in the whole world—"science, the marvelous literature of our tongue in the last three centuries! And to make a child learn Latin with all that, a thousand times richer than all the literature of Latin, lying unused before him!"

"Know any Latin?" asked Mr. Hofmyer.

Jim blushed, as one caught in condemning what he knows nothing about.

"I-I have studied the grammar, and read 'Caesar,' he faltered, "but that isn't much. I had no teacher, and I had to work pretty hard, and it didn't go very well."

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

"You made the best address of the meeting; and you did it because you forgot your speech," insisted Jennie.

"Does anybody else think so?"

"Why, Jim! You must learn to believe in what you have done. Even Con Bonner says it was the best. He says he didn't think you had it in ye!"

This advice from her to "believe in what you have done"—wasn't there something new in Jennie's attitude here? Wasn't his belief in what he was doing precisely the thing which had made him such a nuisance to the county superintendent? However, Jim couldn't stop to answer the question which popped up in his mind.

"What does Professor Withers say?" he asked.

"He's delighted—silly!"

"Silly!" How wonderful it was to be called "silly"—in that tone.

"I shouldn't have forgotten the speech if it hadn't been for this darned bolted shirt and collar, and for wearing a cravat," urged Jim in extenuation.

"You ought to've worn them around the house for a week before coming," said Jennie. "Why didn't you ask my advice?"

"I will, next time, Jennie," said Jim. "I didn't suppose I needed a bittin'—but I guess I did!"

Jennie ran away then to ask Nils Hansen and Bettina to join their dinner party. She had a sudden access of friendliness for the Hansens. Nils refused because he was going out to see the college herds fed; but at Jennie's urgent request, reinforced by pats and hugs, Bettina consented. Jennie was very happy, and proved herself a beaming hostess. The dean devoted himself to Bettina—and Jim found out afterward that this inquiring gentleman was getting at the mental processes of a specimen pupil in one of the new kind of rural schools, in which he was only half inclined to believe. He thanked Jim for his speech, and said it was "most suggestive and thought-provoking," and as the party broke up slipped into Jim's hand a check for the honorarium. It was not until then that Jim felt quite sure that he was actually to be paid.

Mr. Hofmyer was waiting to give Jim the final convincing proof that he had produced an effect with his speech.

"Do you teach the kind of school you lay out in your talk?" he asked.

"I try to," said Jim, "and I believe I do."

"Well," said Mr. Hofmyer, "that's the kind of education I believe in. I keep school back in Pennsylvania fifty years ago, and I made the scholars measure things, and weigh things, and apply their studies as far as I could."

"All good teachers have always done that," said Jim. "Froebel, Pestalozzi, Colonel Parker—they all had the idea which is at the bottom of my work; 'learn to do by doing,' and connecting up the school with life."

"M-h-m," grunted Mr. Hofmyer. "I hadn't been able to see how Latin connects up with a high-school kid's life—unless he can find a Latin settlement somewhere and get a job clerkin' in a store."

"But it used to relate to life," said Jim, "the life of the people who made Greek and Latin a part of everybody else's education as well as their own. Latin and Greek were the only languages in which anything worth much was written, you know. But now—"

Jim spread out his arms as if to take in the whole world—"science, the marvelous literature of our tongue in the last three centuries! And to make a child learn Latin with all that, a thousand times richer than all the literature of Latin, lying unused before him!"

"Know any Latin?" asked Mr. Hofmyer.

Jim blushed, as one caught in condemning what he knows nothing about.

"I-I have studied the grammar, and read 'Caesar,' he faltered, "but that isn't much. I had no teacher, and I had to work pretty hard, and it didn't go very well."

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

"You made the best address of the meeting; and you did it because you forgot your speech," insisted Jennie.

"Does anybody else think so?"

"Why, Jim! You must learn to believe in what you have done. Even Con Bonner says it was the best. He says he didn't think you had it in ye!"

This advice from her to "believe in what you have done"—wasn't there something new in Jennie's attitude here? Wasn't his belief in what he was doing precisely the thing which had made him such a nuisance to the county superintendent? However, Jim couldn't stop to answer the question which popped up in his mind.

"What does Professor Withers say?" he asked.

"He's delighted—silly!"

"Silly!" How wonderful it was to be called "silly"—in that tone.

"I shouldn't have forgotten the speech if it hadn't been for this darned bolted shirt and collar, and for wearing a cravat," urged Jim in extenuation.

"You ought to've worn them around the house for a week before coming," said Jennie. "Why didn't you ask my advice?"

"I will, next time, Jennie," said Jim. "I didn't suppose I needed a bittin'—but I guess I did!"

Jennie ran away then to ask Nils Hansen and Bettina to join their dinner party. She had a sudden access of friendliness for the Hansens. Nils refused because he was going out to see the college herds fed; but at Jennie's urgent request, reinforced by pats and hugs, Bettina consented. Jennie was very happy, and proved herself a beaming hostess. The dean devoted himself to Bettina—and Jim found out afterward that this inquiring gentleman was getting at the mental processes of a specimen pupil in one of the new kind of rural schools, in which he was only half inclined to believe. He thanked Jim for his speech, and said it was "most suggestive and thought-provoking," and as the party broke up slipped into Jim's hand a check for the honorarium. It was not until then that Jim felt quite sure that he was actually to be paid.

Mr. Hofmyer was waiting to give Jim the final convincing proof that he had produced an effect with his speech.

"Do you teach the kind of school you lay out in your talk?" he asked.

"I try to," said Jim, "and I believe I do."

"Well," said Mr. Hofmyer, "that's the kind of education I believe in. I keep school back in Pennsylvania fifty years ago, and I made the scholars measure things, and weigh things, and apply their studies as far as I could."

"All good teachers have always done that," said Jim. "Froebel, Pestalozzi, Colonel Parker—they all had the idea which is at the bottom of my work; 'learn to do by doing,' and connecting up the school with life."

"M-h-m," grunted Mr. Hofmyer. "I hadn't been able to see how Latin connects up with a high-school kid's life—unless he can find a Latin settlement somewhere and get a job clerkin' in a store."

"But it used to relate to life," said Jim, "the life of the people who made Greek and Latin a part of everybody else's education as well as their own. Latin and Greek were the only languages in which anything worth much was written, you know. But now—"

Jim spread out his arms as if to take in the whole world—"science, the marvelous literature of our tongue in the last three centuries! And to make a child learn Latin with all that, a thousand times richer than all the literature of Latin, lying unused before him!"

"Know any Latin?" asked Mr. Hofmyer.

Jim blushed, as one caught in condemning what he knows nothing about.

"I-I have studied the grammar, and read 'Caesar,' he faltered, "but that isn't much. I had no teacher, and I had to work pretty hard, and it didn't go very well."

"I've had all the Latin they gave in the colleges of my time," said Mr. Hofmyer, "if I do talk dialect; and I'll agree with you so far as to say that it would have been a crime for me to neglect the chemistry, bacteriology, physics, engineering and other sciences that pertain to farming—if there'd been any such sciences when I was getting my schooling."

"And yet," said Jim, "some people want us to guide ourselves by the courses of study made before these sciences existed."

"I don't buy that," said Hofmyer. "I'll be dog-goned if you ain't right. I wouldn't 'a' said so before I heard that speech—but I say so now."

Jim's face lighted up at this, the first convincing evidence that he had scored.

"I failed," said Jim. "You know I failed. I couldn't remember my speech. I can't stay here, teaching. I want to get out in the snow."

THE PERIL OF EDISON-FORD'S MONEY SCHEME

Would Create More Paper Money Than Russia's Trillions But Add No Real Wealth.

SOME DANGEROUS FALLACIES

Would Remove Safe Restraint of Gold Basis and Open Way to Endless Issues of Paper Money.

How the United States would be swamped, under a greater volume of worthless paper money than has ruined Germany and Russia, by the Edison-Ford commodity currency plan is pointed out in the present article, concluding the reviews, prepared by the American Bankers Association, of the recent exposure of the folly of the whole scheme by William T. Foster, Director of the Pollack Foundation for Economic Research. Mr. Foster says:

"The supply of money," says Mr. Foster, "is inadequate. There is more wealth than there is money to move it." He draws a vivid picture of the golden dam to the stream of prosperity. From a hundred quarters comes the demand for the government to speed up the printing process, in order to crush the money monopoly, reduce interest rates, and make it easier for everybody to get money. "Inflation," the currency, however, though it enables people to get more units of currency, does not enable them to obtain more purchasing power, and it does not reduce interest rates. In all her history Germany never had so much money or as high interest rates as in 1922. Money, unlike other forms of wealth, is not easier to obtain simply because the total supply is increased. On the contrary, increasing the supply of money ordinarily increases the demand for money, and interest rates depend not on supply but on the relation between supply and demand.

A Dangerous Fallacy
"We are assured, however, that the Ford-Edison plan provides money for the farmer at virtually no expense to the government or to anyone else. All the government has to do is to print the money. What could be simpler? Here we come to the most dangerous fallacy in the whole project. It is dangerous because of the universal desire to get something for nothing.

"Here is the gist of the matter:

Money will buy whatever is produced, not a particle more by any trick of alchemy, or legislation, or finance. The Russians, having multiplied their money 187,000 times, cannot buy as much with it as before. When we print more money there are no more goods for money to buy; not a single additional plow, or hat, or potato. "Some of those who get the newly printed money can buy more goods than before; all other people can buy fewer goods than before, because their money has fallen off in purchasing power. Since there are no more plows, and hats, and potatoes, and so on, to distribute, if some people get more, others must get less. "Inflation under the Edison plan is limited mainly because, on account of its indefensible discrimination, most groups of producers of goods and services are not allowed to participate. If all groups were included, as in fairness and in politics they would have to be eventually, the possibilities of inflation would be vast.

The Deadly Spiral
"The total income of the United States is now in excess of fifty billions of dollars. The total money in circulation, including bank deposits subject to check, is not far from twenty-five billions. It follows that the annual production, if used as a basis for new issues of the Edison plan, could at once greatly increase the volume of money in circulation. Every addition to the monetary supply would tend to raise prices. The higher prices became, the higher would be the loan value of a given volume of goods since the size of the loans is based on values and not volume. The greater, therefore, would be the volume of new money that could be issued on the basis of a given annual production. Prices would become still higher; and so on up an endless spiral.

"Even in Russia, where financial printing presses hold the world's record for volume, where new issues of two hundred trillions of rubles per month stagger the imagination, the people complain that there is not enough money to do business with. Without the arbitrary restraint of the gold basis, and with Muscle Shoals industrialists, and sundry other kinds of inflationists constantly pressing their claims upon Congress, it is not at all certain that the United States, once well on the road to financial chaos, would in the end be outrun by Russia."

BANKS HELP CLUB WORK

Yakima County Banks in the State of Washington have loaned $8,670 to boy and girl club members. Yakima County has twenty-nine pig club members, twenty-four poultry club members, and forty-three dairy club members. Dairy club members are all raising pure-bred stock, local breeders and bankers co-operating with them to the fullest extent.

KEEN ON JUSTICE

Sentiment One of the Strongest Among Arabs.

Will Not Recede Punishment, but Deal Death to Man Who Mistreats.

Mr. Harry Roundtree, when traveling through the French colony of Algiers, had a curious experience in Torggourt, an Arab village in the midst of a desert.

Here, he says, were Arab blacksmiths hammering wonderful knives from filed steel. I photographed one of these men at work. I was alone, and he demanded payment. When I refused, he was not to be put off by a poor joke in bad French, but leaped to his feet and snatched my camera. This I refused, but he then threatened to smash it with his hammer. Being surrounded by some thousands of these gentlemen, all of them standing over six feet in height and all carrying beautifully sharp knives, I came to the conclusion that it was perhaps better to pay the few francs demanded.

I then made my way back to the hotel and informed the manager, a very live young Frenchman, of what had occurred. He at once reached for his hat and said we would go back and settle the matter. I suggested that it was perhaps bothering him, and that as I was going away in a couple of days he might settle the matter at his leisure. Also that I was quite sure my ribs were not proof against Arab knives. He was not to be put off in seeing that justice was carried out. So, unwillingly, I made my way to the spot and pointed out the man. The Frenchman spoke to him in Arabic, and immediately my money was returned. He then suggested that the dark gentleman should follow him to the police court. Thereupon the Arab pleaded that the incident was closed, and I must say I was filled with admiration for the Frenchman when I saw him grip the Arab and lift him clean across his own little furnace and march him off through the crowd to the police court, or what stands for a police court in this place.

He came back to the hotel to tell me that the man had got 28 days' imprisonment for demanding money with menaces, and explained to me how important it was that no incident of this kind should be allowed to go disregarded. He thereupon added to my discomfort by suggesting that I should at once take my camera and work my way back to the subject where I had been photographing and go on with the work. In vain I racked my brains for some excuse, but as this Frenchman had put it to a Britisher there was nothing for it but to do as he suggested.

My French friend told me that he had commanded Arabs during the war, and he said the Arab was a man possessed of a very keen sense of justice. If an Arab had done wrong you could punch him out of shape and he would not attempt to do you any harm; but, he said, never punch an Arab unless you are certain he has done wrong, or the first dark night is the night that you start for your long home.

The Last "Opory"
It has always been the custom in small towns to refer to all classes of theatrical performances as "opry," perhaps because the playhouse is usually called the opera house. Not long ago a theatrical man was obliged to inspect the opera house of a Massachusetts town and found the janitor busy holding down a rocking chair, puffing quietly at an old clay pipe. "Ah, Mr. Stage Manager, just the one I want to see," cheerfully spoke the visitor. "Can you tell me the name of the last show you had here?" The janitor paused thoughtfully for a minute. "I jest can't. It's clean gone from my memory." Then, yielding to some one in the rear, he asked: "Hey, Erzy, what was the last opory we had here?" "The last opory we had here," came the decisive answer, "was Albert Anderson's trained monkeys."—Houston Post.

Russia's Potash Reserve.
According to advice received by the foreign department of Moody's Investors' Service, Professor Brianchikov, an internationally prominent agricultural chemist, has made an exhaustive study concerning the potash deposits in Soviet Russia. Potash reserves in European Russia alone are estimated at 5,568,000,000 tons. (Parenthetically, it may be stated that the contents of the Alsatian potash basin, now belonging to France, are estimated at 2,000,000,000 tons.) Of the total, 141,000,000 tons contain over 24 per cent of recoverable phosphorus; about 1,707,000,000 from 18 to 24 per cent, while the contents of the balance range between 24 and 35 per cent.

Not So Good.
I am a bashful young girl, and seldom have anything to say when out with a beau. The other night, after a long silence, my beau said to me, "A penny for your thoughts." "Oh, they're not worth a penny," I answered. After a pause, he said, "Were you thinking of me?" And I answered, "Yes."—Chicago Tribune.

Worth Pondering Over.
A leaf hits the ground and dies, a seed takes root and grows. Which are you, leaf or seed?—Exchange.

Gowns made or remodeled at 64 Crown street. Call Gladys, 2144.

The Wonderly Co.
SUCCESSORS TO G. A. HART & CO.
515 WALL ST. - KINGSTON, N.Y.

McCall's
Fall Quarterly

McCall's
Fall Patterns for October.

SHOWING FALL COATS AND DRESSES

New Silk Dresses For Fall Wear

New Silk Dresses in the latest Fall models, made of crepe de chine, canton crepe and satin back crepe. Some are made in the beautiful new pleated tier effect, others hand embroidered, colors navy, black and brown, all sizes. Be sure to see these new models, at this low price.

$29.50

New Fall
Sport Coats

We have just received a shipment of new Fall Sport Coats. In beautiful stripes and overplaids. With self or fur collars. Full and semi-lined. There are front and side closing models. All sizes. Price

$25.00 to $59.50

New Fall Blouses

New Fall Blouses, made of crepe de chine and canton crepe. Some in beautiful all over embroidery designs, others in pleated models. Spanish lace trimmed. Side closing and slipover models.

Price $6.50 to $16.50

New Az-U-Wear

Printed Crepe for Blouses

Az-u-wear printed crepe. The newest novelty crepe for fall. Used for blouses, one piece or combination dresses, 40 inches wide. Beautiful color combinations, in light and dark backgrounds.

Price $4.50 yd.
See Window Display.

Children's Gingham School
Dresses

Children's Gingham School Dresses. The famous "Lucette" frock, just like mother's. Everyone knows the "Lucette" frock it means style and fit. Made of best quality gingham. Daintily trimmed in embroidery and applique. Colors blue, rose, yellow, brown and green.

Price $2.25 to $3.25

Window Shades

This is a good time to consider your house furnishings. Especially your window shades, for your new home, or replenishing your old. Let us give you an estimate and have them put up early. Standard sizes.

Price 69c to $1.50

Sunfast Draperies

Silk Sunfast Draperies—perhaps you noticed our silk sunfast booth at the exposition last week. This booth attracted much attention and we had many compliments on these high class draperies. See them on our third floor.

Price $1.50 to $3.75

Crib Blankets

These cool nights demand a little more cover for the baby. Our full line of these Fall coverings made of best Beacon blanketing are now on display. Pretty little bunting effects, plaids and plain. From crib size up to older tots beds. In single and double.

Price $1.00 to $3.00

Special Sale of Turkish Towels

Special sale of Turkish Towels for this week-end selling. Made by one of the largest manufacturers of Turkish Towels in the country. Slightly soiled with oil spots. This, however, will not affect the wearing qualities. In fact they are hard to detect. Regular value $1.00 to $1.39.

Special 69c and 89c

SPECIAL— "Queen Make" Apron-Dresses

"Queen Make" Apron Dresses, made of fine imported gingham. In beautiful shades of brown, blue, green, rose, red and black, trimmed in contrasting color and dainty applique and embroidery. All sizes.

Special Price $2.25
Just received a new line of "Queen Make" House Dresses. Be sure to see these.

CARL MILLINERY

The Department That Service Built

2nd FLOOR

2nd FLOOR

ELEVATOR SERVICE.

MISS L. SCHOONMAKER, Mgr.

NEW AUDITORIUM THEATRE

Presents TODAY and THURSDAY MARION DAVIES, in
'WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER'
Mermaid Comedy—"DANGER."

TOMORROW—Last Time, "When Knighthood Was in Flower."
MAT., 2:30. EVE.—Show starts 6:15 & 9:00 on account of length of show.

Fortunes

Have been made in real estate. If you want to sell your house, advertise it in the One Cent a Word Column of THE FREEMAN

IN THE AIR TONIGHT.

Radio Programs That Are Free As the Air That Carries Them.

Radio programs for tonight are:

WEAF—New York City (492 Meters.)

7:30—Bess Perry, soprano.

7:50—"The Plain Case of the Dairy Farmer," by George W. Slocum.

8:00—Chevalier F. Cornadetti, barytone.

8:20—Richard E. Enright, Police Commissioner of New York City, in the first of a series of talks.

8:35—Bess Perry, soprano.

9:00-10:00—Wednesday night dance.

WJZ—New York City (455 Meters.)

7:30—Baseball finale, National and American Leagues.

7:35—"Popular Songs of Other Nations" by Eugene Berton, barytone. 7:45—"The Progress of the World."

8:00—"Popular Songs of Other Nations" by Eugene Berton, barytone.

8:15—"Who Has More Slaves Than Pharaoh?" by Earl E. Whitehouse.

8:30—"The preliminaries and main-about between Johnny Dundee and Benny Leonard, by direct wire from the ringside at the Yankee Stadium, announcing by J. Andrew White.

KYW—Chicago (345 Meters.)

7:00—Latest news of the day.

8:00—News, financial and final market and sport summary.

8:50—Children's bedtime story.

10:00-10:55—Musical program.

10:55—Naval Observatory time signals.

11:00—News and weather reports. A wild throw by Leonard Stauble

11:05—Special features as announced by radiophone.

WGY—Schenectady (800 Meters.)

8:30—Sandman's visit.

8:50—Baseball scores and weather forecast.

10:00—Pipe organ recital. Mrs. Frank W. Elliott, organist.

11:00—Educational lecture on Thrift.

12:00—Artist musical program.

RURY WINS SIXTH STRAIGHT; LOSES SEVENTH ON LABOR DAY

Manager Mardon's Ruby nine beat Sawkill, 17 to 6 Sunday, winning its fifth straight game. On Labor Day the Kingston Cubs played two games on the Ruby diamond, Ruby winning the first game 8-7, and its sixth straight, losing the second game 8-6.

11:00—News and weather reports. A wild throw by Leonard Stauble over third base gave the Kingston Cubs their two runs. Percy Gaddis won the first game, pitching a great game. He also brought in three runs, getting three fine hits, two of them two-baggers. Van Wagener pitched good ball in the second game, but received poor support. Ruby plays at Port Ewen next Sunday.

Small Things Count.
Small kindnesses, small courtesies, small consideration, habitually practiced in our social intercourse, give a greater charm to the character than the display of great talents and accomplishments.—M. A. Kelly.

Quite Likely.
Howell—"My wife never keeps me waiting while she gets ready for church." Powell—"She would if you went."—New York Sun.

A Fall Opening

HERE'S THE NEWS IN HEAD-LINES
FROM STYLE-CENTERS THIS SEASON.
THE STYLE CENTERS THIS SEASON
AROUND THE NEW FALL

STETSON HATS

A. Kunst Son

15 BROADWAY.

Downtown.

Open Evenings.

MORE COMPANIES ARE INCORPORATED

But Capitalization Totals Less Than Last Year For Same Two Months
—But One Company In Ulster.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Albany, Sept. 5.—With more business concerns incorporating, and with little or no evidence of the usual midsummer let up, encouraging features are presented in a report made today by Secretary of State James A. Hamilton, covering the activities of the corporation bureau for the past two months. While there have been more companies incorporated during these two months this year than in the same period in 1922, it is noticeable that the total amount of capitalization represented falls below last year. In other words, more companies have incorporated, but the capitalization has been smaller in a great many instances.

During July and August of this year, a total of 2,620 companies having a capitalization of $95,127,150, were incorporated in New York state. During the past two months 2,735 companies, with a capitalization of $84,887,650, have incorporated.

During July and August of this year, 715 real estate firms have been formed as compared to 426 in the same two months a year ago. There are 30 new motion picture concerns as the result of the last two months' activity, as compared to 39 a year ago. A total of 166 garment-making concerns incorporated during the past two months as against 170 a year ago.

It is noticeable that during the past two months, companies forming and incorporating were spread over a greater area, practically every county being represented, although the great bulk were from New York city. During July, out of the 1,394 companies incorporated, there were 1,100 in New York city, while in August, out of the 1,451 incorporated, 1,252 maintained their principal business offices in the metropolis.

While there were no companies incorporated in Ulster county during the month of July, last month showed the incorporation of one company, having a capitalization of $15,000.

MCCARTHY JAILED AS DRUNKEN DRIVER

James McCarthy, a youth of the town of Lloyd was brought to the Ulster county jail, Tuesday afternoon, on a commitment issued by Justice of the Peace Harold A. Lent to be held to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of running an automobile while intoxicated, having run into another car, the damage being slight. McCarthy expected to be released on bail.

DELINQUENT TAXPAYERS NOW PAY 2 PER CENT FEES

School taxes which have not yet been paid are now being received at the city treasurer's office with two per cent fees on the amount of such tax. The two per cent fees are effective to September 25, after which the fees will be five per cent with one dollar additional for notice.

Willard R. Wells of Brooklyn has purchased through the Ulster Realty Agency the Henry H. Schenck fruit and poultry farm of 26 acres with residence and buildings, at Union Center, town of Esopus. Mr. Wells will take possession about September 15.

Mrs. Darrow Won. At the Exposition last week I. Shapiro, of 41 North Front street, gave a gallon of velvet flat paint and a four inch paint brush as a prize. The winner was Mrs. Herbert Darrow of Highland.

Summary of the events: 50-Yard Dash—1. Doyle, Katsbaan Troop No. 1; 2. Donlon, Troop 3. Saugerties; 3. C. Brice, Troop 3. Saugerties. Prizes—1. camera; 2. fountain pen; 3. ten knife.

Antelope Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties; 2. Troop 4. Saugerties; 3. Brice, Donlon, Hackett, S. Brice, Dragotta, Sweeney, Searing, Hyndes; 4. Troop 4. Saugerties; 5. Brown, McMillen, Simmons, Wlands, Shultz, Myer, Smith, Hoonbeck; 6. Troop 1. Saugerties, Whitaker, Branigan, Schaff, Schoenatz, Hunt, Nolan, Schaff, Slack. Prizes—1. first aid kit; 2. knapsack; 3. Scout signal flag.

Paul Revere Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties, Hackett and Michael; 2. Chester Troop No. 1, Zimmerman and C. Morris; 3. Port Ewen Troop No. 1. Lapine and Galloway. Prizes—1. two pair boxing gloves; 2. Scout signal flag; 3. Scout hatchet.

Crab Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties; 2. Piero, Katsbaan Troop; 3. de, Dulin, Kingston Troop; 4. Peters, Troop 2. Saugerties. Prizes—1. fountain pen; 2. Scout knife; 3. first aid kit.

Horse and Rider Contest—1. Chester Troop No. 1, Bennett and Johnson; 2. Troop 4. Saugerties; 3. Brown and Wlands; 4. Port Ewen Troop No. 1. Cutler and Nidham. Prizes—1. camera; 2. fountain pen; 3. Scout knife.

1-Mile Relay Race—1. Chester Troop No. 1; 2. Port Ewen Troop No. 1; 3. Troop 3. Saugerties. Prizes—1. fountain pen; 2. Scout knife; 3. flashlight.

Starter—Fred Von Voorhis. Scorers—E. Anderson and C. Whittaker. Two hundred Scouts took part and at least 2,500 people were present at the affair.

Fell Into Lake. Mrs. John Conway of New York, who was entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Brogan and family of this city at Golden Rule Inn Sunday took an unexpected dip in a nearby lake while attempting to step into a rowboat manned by Mary Hines of Brooklyn. There was no real danger of drowning as she was but a few feet deep and as her husband was right there on the spot. The heroism and hero of the rescue were Miss Farrell, Miss Samuels and Mr. Casey. Mrs. Conway was none the worse for her bath.

GREENE COULD BUILD MACHINE

With Patronage At His Disposal
Second Only To Governor—Four That He'll Likely Try To Economize
For Alamo Democratic Leaders.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Albany, Sept. 5.—Patronage totaling $4,370,000 is at the disposal of Colonel Frederick Stuart Greene, newly appointed superintendent of the recently created state department of public works.

Never before, it is said, has a state official, with the exception of the governor, had such a great amount of patronage at his disposal.

But Colonel Greene has sounded a warning that there will be far fewer jobs in the departments under his control when he gets through.

In the highway division, outside of the $240,000 for the Albany office there was appropriated by the last legislature for engineering, supervising, inspecting, labor, machines, chauffeurs and trucks, on the nine state highway divisions, $2,280,000.

The public works division has $1,540,000 at its disposal, while $300,000 is allotted each year for the department of public buildings.

Democratic leaders who have been to the Capitol in the last week freely admit that Colonel Greene is in a position to build up a great political machine through proper distribution of the patronage.

Friends of the new public works superintendent declare, however, that such a thing is farthest from his mind and that his whole duty will be to save all the money he can for the state by consolidating bureaus and abolishing overlapping jobs. They say this is illustrated by the fact that Colonel Greene, while allowed a deputy at $6,500 a year under the law, plans to do all the work with the aid of a secretary-stenographer.

In due time Colonel Greene hopes to have the highway department and public works bureaus under one roof. He firmly believes the consolidation of these two departments and the department of public buildings will result in great saving to the state.

While the Colonel's appointment is reported not to be popular with the Democratic leaders, it may be popular in line with the taxpayers.

In the meantime the Colonel's slogan will be "Eliminate all useless jobs."

BOY SCOUT PRIZE WINNERS

At Saugerties Field Day—200
Competed and 2,500 Saw Them—
Were Treated Royally.

When it comes to putting things over with "pep," the Scouts had it to that Saugerties Boy Scout committee. Without a doubt the Scouts of Ulster county had the times of their lives at the field meet at Saugerties Labor Day and O. boy, the cats!

The program for the day was: Grand parade, 10 a. m. Field Events at 2 p. m.

1. Flag raising.
2. Exhibition drill by Troop 3. St. Mary's Church, Saugerties.
3. Short address by G. Henry Nesslage.
4. 50-yard dash.
5. Antelope race.
6. Paul Revere race.
7. Songs and Indian dance, Indian Chief Manhabozho, of New York city.
8. Crab race.
9. Horse and rider contest.
10. 1-mile relay race.
11. Troop stunts.

Judges—G. Henry Nesslage, Louis Fellows, W. Hoyt Overbagh. Summary of the events: 50-Yard Dash—1. Doyle, Katsbaan Troop No. 1; 2. Donlon, Troop 3. Saugerties; 3. C. Brice, Troop 3. Saugerties. Prizes—1. camera; 2. fountain pen; 3. ten knife.

Antelope Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties; 2. Troop 4. Saugerties; 3. Brice, Donlon, Hackett, S. Brice, Dragotta, Sweeney, Searing, Hyndes; 4. Troop 4. Saugerties; 5. Brown, McMillen, Simmons, Wlands, Shultz, Myer, Smith, Hoonbeck; 6. Troop 1. Saugerties, Whitaker, Branigan, Schaff, Schoenatz, Hunt, Nolan, Schaff, Slack. Prizes—1. first aid kit; 2. knapsack; 3. Scout signal flag.

Paul Revere Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties, Hackett and Michael; 2. Chester Troop No. 1, Zimmerman and C. Morris; 3. Port Ewen Troop No. 1. Lapine and Galloway. Prizes—1. two pair boxing gloves; 2. Scout signal flag; 3. Scout hatchet.

Crab Race—1. Troop 3. Saugerties; 2. Piero, Katsbaan Troop; 3. de, Dulin, Kingston Troop; 4. Peters, Troop 2. Saugerties. Prizes—1. fountain pen; 2. Scout knife; 3. first aid kit.

Horse and Rider Contest—1. Chester Troop No. 1, Bennett and Johnson; 2. Troop 4. Saugerties; 3. Brown and Wlands; 4. Port Ewen Troop No. 1. Cutler and Nidham. Prizes—1. camera; 2. fountain pen; 3. Scout knife.

1-Mile Relay Race—1. Chester Troop No. 1; 2. Port Ewen Troop No. 1; 3. Troop 3. Saugerties. Prizes—1. fountain pen; 2. Scout knife; 3. flashlight.

Starter—Fred Von Voorhis. Scorers—E. Anderson and C. Whittaker. Two hundred Scouts took part and at least 2,500 people were present at the affair.

Fell Into Lake. Mrs. John Conway of New York, who was entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Brogan and family of this city at Golden Rule Inn Sunday took an unexpected dip in a nearby lake while attempting to step into a rowboat manned by Mary Hines of Brooklyn. There was no real danger of drowning as she was but a few feet deep and as her husband was right there on the spot. The heroism and hero of the rescue were Miss Farrell, Miss Samuels and Mr. Casey. Mrs. Conway was none the worse for her bath.

Opera House

ALL THIS WEEK!

MATINEE
Daily 2:30

TONIGHT BASEBALL NIGHT!

BOB OTT has invited and reserved the two front rows for the PHILADELPHIA NATIONAL BALL PLAYERS AND THE COLONIALS

Come and See the FUN!

Also the New York

Prize Play,

"TRY AND GET IT"

THE GREATEST DANCING SHOW IN THE WORLD!

Matinee Prices, 25c and 50c; Night, 25c, 50c, 75c

Opera House

SEPT. 10, 11 and 12

MATINEE WEDNESDAY ONLY

THURSTON-KELLAR MYSTERIES
By
DANTE
EUROPE'S MAGICIAN
PRESENTING THE MOST MYSTIFYING SPECTACLE THE BRAIN OF MAN HAS EVER DEvised.
23-PEOPLE-23
2 CAR-LOADS-EFFECTS-2
SEE-ALVIN'S SIX MUSICAL WIZARDS.
MORE FEATURES, THRILLS, SURPRISES, SENSATIONS
THAN EVER BEFORE WITNESSED.
50 MASTER MYSTERIES NEW TO AMERICA 50
Write your questions at home. "THRILLING, LASTING IMPRESSIONS"

PRICES ..... 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Plus tax.
SEATS ON SALE FRIDAY

COFFIN RELIEVED OF MURDER PROBE

Greene's District Attorney In Nervous
Collapse—Another Complaint
That He Wouldn't Let Others
Help—Thorp to Continue Investigation.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Windham, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Continuous investigation of the Rothenberg murder has resulted in the collapse of Charles G. Coffin, district attorney of Greene county. William E. Thorp of Catskill, former deputy attorney-general, has been retained to carry on the case.

Mr. Coffin's sudden illness is attributed to overwork and nervousness. He has been devoting most of his time exclusively to securing evidence whereby the murderer of seven-year-old Howard Rothenberg might be arrested.

In the meantime Mr. Thorp is co-operating with Sheriff Albert W. Pierce in his investigation. Anna Sablin, sixteen year old nurse, who has been in custody since the crime, was taken by Sheriff Pierce to his home in Catskill this afternoon because of threats which had been made against the girl while living at the Branaugh cottage. Monday night Anna was approached by Mrs. Anna Vogel, mother of Mrs. Esther Litt, who was held in custody until Monday, and accused of committing the crime.

"You killed my angel," Mrs. Vogel charged. "You twisted his neck. I wish my angel would come back to night and strangle you." The authorities say the girl has been subject to too much pressure already, although no definite evidence to incriminate her has been produced.

Mrs. Anna Seraphim, foster mother of Anna, arrived from Newark this morning and conferred with Acting District Attorney Thorp. She said counsel had been retained for the girl at no time. Mrs. Seraphim added that both she and Anna were willing to help in every way toward solving the murder. Anna will be questioned soon and it is intimated that for the first time she is willing to make disclosures which may prove startling.

A violent quarrel between members of the Rothenberg and Litt families occurred Monday behind locked doors in the county court house in Catskill, it became known today. Charles Rothenberg, well to do Newark hat manufacturer, who is father of the dead boy, declared that his wife and Mrs. Litt, Howard's aunt, had not told all they knew. Names were called and many threats made. Charges were made by the father and his brother Joseph, and Mrs. Rothenberg and Mrs. Litt made angry counter charges. Such a furor developed that windows in the room were closed to prevent people on the street overhearing.

COFFIN RELIEVED OF MURDER PROBE

The authorities have traced the buggy tracks in the field across the creek from Kelly's Mill where the body was found, and are seeking possible witnesses to the passage of a buggy through the field early Wednesday morning.

Lieut. John Enright of Inspector Bolan's staff in New York city has explained that he offered to assist District Attorney Coffin last week. He is in Windham on his vacation. He said he had arranged a set of questions to put to all the suspects in the case, but his assistance was refused. He said the district attorney told him he didn't believe in third degree methods and wanted no interference.

"There should have been an arrest by sundown that night," said Lieut. Enright. "The circumstantial evidence was sufficient. I examined the knots on the cloth about the boy's throat and on his hands. The knots were tied by a woman and it was the crudest job I've ever seen."

Our Growing Population.

The following births have been reported to the board of health:

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Morse, head, 7 Flist avenue, a daughter, Evelyn Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Enright, 73 Brewster street, a son James Evan.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrold Freer, 170 Foxhall avenue, a son Myrold Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCloskey, 235 Catherine street, a daughter Nora Frances.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Lowe, 272 Broadway, a son Edward.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Reis, 47 Hemlock avenue, a son Vincent Richard.

QUOTATIONS AT PUBLIC MARKET

There was a variety of fruit and produce at the public market on Field Court this morning, and the market sold out early.

Today's quotations:
Peaches, 75c to $1.25 basket.
Plums, $1 to $1.25 basket.
Apples, 40c to 75c basket.
Tomatoes, 50c to 60c basket.
Corn, $1 to $1.25 per 100.
Peppers, green, $1 per 100.
Red Peppers, $2 to $2.25 per 100.
Cucumbers, $1.75 to $2 per 100.
Cabbage, $5 and $6 per 100.
Lettuce, 75c dozen heads.
Beets, 40c dozen bunches.
Carrots, 35c dozen bunches.
Squash yellow, 75c dozen.
Cauliflower, $1.75 to $2.50 dozen.
Egg plant, $1.50 to $1.75 dozen.

DAVIS HAS DONE WELL FOR STONE RIDGE

Stone Ridge, Sept. 5.—The new street lights have been in use for over a week to the satisfaction of all concerned. Much credit is due Fred Davis, the hustling young supervisor for what he has done during his term of office. Not only have we to thank him for our new street lights but also for the good roads we are getting as it is through him the town now owns its own crusher, oil tanks, rammers, etc. The Atwood road has given employment to many of our own people which enables us to keep the town money in the town. In the last two years Mr. Davis has saved the town of Marbletown $1,000 and when election day rolls around this fall no doubt the present supervisor will be re-elected as he is a man of ability and education and a graduate of Baa-man's Business College of Poughkeepsie which makes him especially well fitted for the office he holds. Why make a change when there is a good man in office?

Kohl's Clambake.

Tony Kohl will serve the annual clambake at Tono-Kohl Inn, near Spillway, Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. There will be only one bake and extra waiters have been engaged to give prompt service.

KEENEY'S THEATRE

TONIGHT ONLY

You'll Have to Step Fast to Keep Up With MIX and TONY in this High Speed Drama!

WILLIAM FOX
presents
Tom Mix
in
STEPPING FAST
Speed wins in this whirlwind action drama

LATEST NEWS.
LUPINO LANE in
"MY HERO"
Topics of the Day

SHOWS ONE 25c SEVEN 35c KIDS 15c
THREE NINE

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY

Mae Murray
in "JAZZMANIA"

Speaking of being democratic, there's no greater antidote for snobbishness than jazz. As a leveling instrument, the sylvan of the so-called gram reaper has nothing on a saxophone. No one is immune from the ravages of syncopation. Take even Queen Ninon, of the monarchy of Jazzmania. If you don't know where that is, try a map. European geography is as shifty these days as the pea in the shell game. At any rate, Queen Ninon changed the name of her country from Jazzmania to Jazzmania, and the details of how this came about constitute the story of Mae Murray's latest and most gorgeous photoplay. She is Queen Ninon and the title of her picture is "Jazzmania," and after you've seen it you'll announce to the universe that it is the steppiest, peppiest, most pulse-quickenning and eye-rilling strip of celluloid ever enlarged on a screen.

SAUGERTIES BOARD AUTHORIZES BOND ISSUE.

The town board of Saugerties held its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon.

The polling places for the primary and general elections were designated, these being the same as last year.

A bond issue of $23,414.56 was ordered to pay the town's cost of the eliminating of the grade crossing, etc., on the Mt. Marion road, these bonds to bear interest not to exceed 4 1/2 per cent. Supervisor Frattcher and Town Clerk Teetsell were named a committee to have the county attorney arrange for advertising the bonds in the Saugerties Post and The Kingston Freeman.

Albert A. Teetsell was reappointed as trustee officer for the ensuing year.

An appropriation of $200 was made for use of the overseer of the poor.

French Ambassador Safe.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Paris, Sept. 5.—The French ambassador to Japan is safe, the foreign office was advised today. He took refuge on board the French steamship Andre Lebon.

LATEST NEWS.
LUPINO LANE in
"MY HERO"
Topics of the Day

SHOWS ONE 25c SEVEN 35c KIDS 15c
THREE NINE

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY

Mae Murray
in "JAZZMANIA"

Speaking of being democratic, there's no greater antidote for snobbishness than jazz. As a leveling instrument, the sylvan of the so-called gram reaper has nothing on a saxophone. No one is immune from the ravages of syncopation. Take even Queen Ninon, of the monarchy of Jazzmania. If you don't know where that is, try a map. European geography is as shifty these days as the pea in the shell game. At any rate, Queen Ninon changed the name of her country from Jazzmania to Jazzmania, and the details of how this came about constitute the story of Mae Murray's latest and most gorgeous photoplay. She is Queen Ninon and the title of her picture is "Jazzmania," and after you've seen it you'll announce to the universe that it is the steppiest, peppiest, most pulse-quickenning and eye-rilling strip of celluloid ever enlarged on a screen.

SAUGERTIES BOARD AUTHORIZES BOND ISSUE.

The town board of Saugerties held its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon.

The polling places for the primary and general elections were designated, these being the same as last year.

A bond issue of $23,414.56 was ordered to pay the town's cost of the eliminating of the grade crossing, etc., on the Mt. Marion road, these bonds to bear interest not to exceed 4 1/2 per cent. Supervisor Frattcher and Town Clerk Teetsell were named a committee to have the county attorney arrange for advertising the bonds in the Saugerties Post and The Kingston Freeman.

Albert A. Teetsell was reappointed as trustee officer for the ensuing year.

An appropriation of $200 was made for use of the overseer of the poor.

French Ambassador Safe.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Paris, Sept. 5.—The French ambassador to Japan is safe, the foreign office was advised today. He took refuge on board the French steamship Andre Lebon.

LATEST NEWS.
LUPINO LANE in
"MY HERO"
Topics of the Day

SHOWS ONE 25c SEVEN 35c KIDS 15c
THREE NINE

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY

Mae Murray
in "JAZZMANIA"

Speaking of being democratic, there's no greater antidote for snobbishness than jazz. As a leveling instrument, the sylvan of the so-called gram reaper has nothing on a saxophone. No one is immune from the ravages of syncopation. Take even Queen Ninon, of the monarchy of Jazzmania. If you don't know where that is, try a map. European geography is as shifty these days as the pea in the shell game. At any rate, Queen Ninon changed the name of her country from Jazzmania to Jazzmania, and the details of how this came about constitute the story of Mae Murray's latest and most gorgeous photoplay. She is Queen Ninon and the title of her picture is "Jazzmania," and after you've seen it you'll announce to the universe that it is the steppiest, peppiest, most pulse-quickenning and eye-rilling strip of celluloid ever enlarged on a screen.

SAUGERTIES BOARD AUTHORIZES BOND ISSUE.

The town board of Saugerties held its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon.

The polling places for the primary and general elections were designated, these being the same as last year.

A bond issue of $23,414.56 was ordered to pay the town's cost of the eliminating of the grade crossing, etc., on the Mt. Marion road, these bonds to bear interest not to exceed 4 1/2 per cent. Supervisor Frattcher and Town Clerk Teetsell were named a committee to have the county attorney arrange for advertising the bonds in the Saugerties Post and The Kingston Freeman.

Albert A. Teetsell was reappointed as trustee officer for the ensuing year.

An appropriation of $200 was made for use of the overseer of the poor.

French Ambassador Safe.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Paris, Sept. 5.—The French ambassador to Japan is safe, the foreign office was advised today. He took refuge on board the French steamship Andre Lebon.

LATEST NEWS.
LUPINO LANE in
"MY HERO"
Topics of the Day

SHOWS ONE 25c SEVEN 35c KIDS 15c
THREE NINE

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
SATURDAY

Mae Murray
in "JAZZMANIA"

Speaking of being democratic, there's no greater antidote for snobbishness than jazz. As a leveling instrument, the sylvan of the so-called gram reaper has nothing on a saxophone. No one is immune from the ravages of syncopation. Take even Queen Ninon, of the monarchy of Jazzmania. If you don't know where that is, try a map. European geography is as shifty these days as the pea in the shell game. At any rate, Queen Ninon changed the name of her country from Jazzmania to Jazzmania, and the details of how this came about constitute the story of Mae Murray's latest and most gorgeous photoplay. She is Queen Ninon and the title of her picture is "Jazzmania," and after you've seen it you'll announce to the universe that it is the steppiest, peppiest, most pulse-quickenning and eye-rilling strip of celluloid ever enlarged on a screen.

SAUGERTIES BOARD AUTHORIZES BOND ISSUE.

The town board of Saugerties held its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon.

The polling places for the primary and general elections were designated, these being the same as last year.

A bond issue of $23,

RELIEF REACHES TOKIO DISTRICT

As communication was partially restored today with the Japanese areas devastated by earthquake, fire, storm and tidal wave, the estimates of dead became more conservative. The deaths may not exceed 300,000.

American Ambassador Wood reported from Tokyo that the casualties in the city are now estimated at only 10,000. All Americans are safe, he said. The Japanese consul general at Shanghai, however, estimated the dead in Tokyo at 120,000.

The first supplies of relief food have reached the ravaged district around Tokyo. Food and medicines are badly needed by the hundreds of thousands of homeless fugitives. Within a few days a steady stream of food, clothing, shelter tents, blankets and medicines will be pouring in to Japan.

Vice Consul Jenks, an American, is reported dead at Yokohama. The Italian ambassador at Tokyo was killed.

Manila reports news from a semi-official source that Premier Yamamoto is missing.

A million and a half people in stricken Tokyo are facing starvation. Yokohama was completely destroyed not a building being left standing, according to a private cablegram.

The work of reconstruction will start at once. It is estimated Japan will buy $500,000,000 worth of supplies in the United States.

MULDOON SEEKS LIGHT ON RECORD OF SIKI

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, Sept. 5.—The scheduled attempt to match Harry Willis, the American Negro, with Battling Siki, the Senegalese, today may strike a snag in the person of William Muldoon, chairman of the state commission.

Muldoon declared today that Siki's status abroad would have to be determined satisfactorily before the battling one could appear in a ring here. He also intimated that Siki might first have to meet Kid Norfolk since both are in the same division.

"Siki paid a visit to the commission and I weighed and measured him," Muldoon added. "He seems to have all the physical qualifications of a great fighter. With his clothes on, Siki weighed 185 1/2 pounds."

HIGGINSVILLE WOMAN HAD TOO MUCH WINE

Too much wine led to the arrest of a Higginsville woman at 3:45 o'clock this morning on Taylor street, near Murphy street, where Officer Shoemaker was attracted to the scene by her crying and yelling. She spent the remainder of the night at police headquarters and this morning was arraigned in police court before Judge Schrick.

In reply to the judge's questions she said that she was guilty and could not account for it by having had too much wine. Her husband was in court and under the information that the stuff sold these days could not be trusted, and it only took a little to make trouble. He paid his wife's fine of $5, and Judge Schrick advised her to be more careful in the future.

JAPANESE LINER WITH 600 ABOARD SAFE

By Telegram to The Freeman. Tomokawa, Japan, Sept. 5.—Via Radio Corporation of America to San Francisco.—The Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Taiyo Maru with about 600 passengers aboard, is safe. It revealed today when the vessel communicated with the Japanese radio station at Choshi.

The Taiyo Maru had been reported in distress in the vicinity of Yokohama. The Cordova, Alaska, wireless station picked up S. O. S. calls from a ship said to have been the Taiyo Maru.

THE CLOVE

The Clove, Sept. 5.—A number from this place attended the exposition at Kingston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. DePuy spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. DePuy at St. Joseph.

Mr. Gray and family of Creek Locks have moved in the George Avers house now owned by Mr. Smiley. He will be employed by Fernando Terwilliger.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Powell and daughter of Kingston have been visiting relatives in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sheeley, Mr. and Mrs. John K. DePuy and Miss Ida Sheeley attended the Kripplush picnic, Labor Day evening.

School opened Tuesday with Miss Charlotte Wager as teacher and Miss Ida Sheeley as janitor. Francis Smiley of Lake Mohawk is trustee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheeley are about to move in Clearwater Cottage, near Spring Farm.

Frank Silkworth has purchased a Ford touring car.

CYPRUS STILL TREMBLES

By Telegram to The Freeman. Athens, Sept. 5.—Renewed earthquake shocks were felt today on the island of Cyprus in the Mediterranean. No casualties were reported.

BOICE—At Utica, N. Y., September 2, 1923. Lamont Boice.

Funeral at the chapel of A. Carr & Son, 1 Pearl street, on Thursday at 1 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery.

Any Ambulance! Any Distance! Hour

LEO V. GROGAN FUNERAL SERVICE Cor. Wall & Pearl Sts. Phone 546

Odds and Ends

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will hold its regular meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will hold its regular monthly business meeting Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. Ladies are asked to bring scissors and thimbles.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

A 12th anniversary mind Mass will be celebrated at St. Mary's Church Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock for the late Mrs. Mary Van Tassel.

Christopher Becker died at his home on Montgomery street, Saugerties, Saturday, September 1, leaving two daughters, Mrs. William Kelly and Mrs. William Wolven, and one son, Levi. He was in his 63rd year. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the Rev. T. E. Richards of the Congregational Church officiating. Interment in Blue Mountain cemetery.

The funeral of John W. Moran was held from the late residence in East Kingston at 9:30 this morning and at 10 o'clock at St. Colman's Church, where a requiem Mass was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Thomas P. Larkin. At the conclusion of the Mass Mrs. J. William Leary rendered very beautifully "My God and Father, While I Stray." The funeral cortege was exceptionally large and the floral offerings beautiful. The Rev. Father Larkin accompanied the remains to St. Mary's Cemetery, where he conducted the committal services.

ALLIGERVILLE.

Alligerville, Sept. 5.—At the annual meeting of the Kyserville Rural Cemetery Association, held in the school house Tuesday evening, a motion was made and carried that the assessment be raised on all plots to $10 a year. A building is to be erected 12x16 for the use of the cemetery association. Moses V. Davis was re-elected trustee and H. B. DeWitt a trustee for three years. The trustees are to meet at the cemetery Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of straightening out some lines and making some other repairs.

Miss Libbie Lounsberry returned to Accord Tuesday evening after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith.

Mr. Stanley G. DeWitt of Utica is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. DeWitt. School opened Tuesday. Teachers, Mrs. Elizabeth D. Noonan, Miss Helen Garrison.

WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Sept. 5.—The Rev. J. F. Nicholas will preach on Sunday at 11 a. m. on "Japan," and a voluntary contribution for the sufferers will be collected at the end of the service. The same subject and service at Zena at 2:30. P. S. C. E. at 7:30; leader, Albert Rixley. Subject, "The Evil of Gambling." Standard time.

Congressman Safe.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 5.—Congressman Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey, and his wife, who were reported killed in Japan, are safe and well, said a message received this afternoon by Mrs. Ackerman's sister, Mrs. Frank L. Hatch. The cablegram announcing their safety was filed from Nikko.

Seek Stolen Property.

Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Kolts and Deputy Sheriff Jocelyn made a tour of the country in the neighborhood of Woodstock searching for articles which it is claimed were stolen from a couple of dwellings at the Maverick colony. None of the goods mentioned in the search warrant were located.

An Ambulance Call.

Tuesday afternoon the ambulance removed Mary Dermody from 59 East Chester street to the Kingston City Hospital.

Established 1894.

C. D. HALSEY & CO. 27 Williams St., New York City.

Investment Securities BRANCH OFFICE 260 FAIR ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.

Geo. G. Brooks, Resident Manager.

Phone 295. Res. Phone 2313-M. Members of New York Stock Exchange.

Of Special Importance to INVESTORS

We offer, subject to prior sale, a limited amount of high-grade Cumulative Preferred Stock.

This issue has paid dividends quarterly without cessation since the inception of the company several years ago, and today has a large cash surplus.

At offering price, this stock is an excellent carrier, with exceptional speculative possibilities.

For further information, write or call

Saddlemire & Co., Inc., 273 Fair St., Kingston, N. Y. Tel. 2068.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 5.—Davison Chemical continued a feature of stock market trading at the opening today, advancing 1 1/4 points on a few transactions to 46 1/4. Du Pont, selling ex-dividend, rose 3 points to 125. The remainder of the list, however, moved in an irregular manner with price changes confined to fractions. Steel opened 1/2 higher at 92 1/2. Bethlehem Steel dropped 1/2 to 31 1/2. General Asphalt yielded 1/2 to 32 1/2. Great Northern Preferred lost 1/4 to 57 1/2. Northern Pacific 5/8 to 59 and St. Paul preferred 1/2 to 29.

Opening irregularly was followed by a stiffening of the undertone during the forenoon in which all the early losers were recovered and gains were recorded in many sections. Steel stocks were strong, Steel Common going up to 92 1/2, nearly a point above the opening low. Republic Steel rallied one point to 48 and similar recoveries were made in Crucible, Baldwin and Bethlehem Steel. Gulf States Steel rose nearly 2 points to 87 1/2. Specialties were in favor, Davison Chemical, Du Pont, Mallinon and Bechtel showing gains of from 2 to 4 points. Railroad and oil stocks were steady.

The market was buoyant in the early afternoon. Gulf States Steel rose over 2 points to 88 1/2. Mallinon silk improved to close to 30. American Can was up 3 points to 99. Steel Common rose to 93 and Studebaker to close to 107. Baldwin advanced to above 124. Ralls improved fractionally.

Quotations given by C. H. Halsey & Co., 27 Williams street, New York City, branch office, Warren Building, 260-62 Fair street, Kingston, N. Y.

3:45 P. M. QUOTATIONS.

|                               |         |
|-------------------------------|---------|
| American Beet Sugar           | 99 1/2  |
| American Can                  | 99 1/2  |
| American Car & Foundry        | 94 1/2  |
| American Lumber               | 12 1/2  |
| American Smelting & Ref. Co.  | 58 1/2  |
| American Sugar                | 92 1/2  |
| American Tel. & Tel.          | 124 1/2 |
| American Woolen               | 87 1/2  |
| Andover Copper Mining         | 40 1/2  |
| Atchafalpa                    | 97 1/2  |
| Baldwin Loco                  | 124 1/2 |
| Baltimore & Ohio              | 90 1/2  |
| Bethlehem Steel B.            | 31 1/2  |
| California Petroleum          | 20 1/2  |
| Canadian Pacific              | 148 1/2 |
| Central Leather               | 19 1/2  |
| Cerro de Pasco Copper         | 34 1/2  |
| Chandler Motors               | 54 1/2  |
| Chenango & Ohio               | 63 1/2  |
| Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul      | 12 1/2  |
| Chicago, R. I. & Pacific      | 20 1/2  |
| Cons. Gas                     | 62 1/2  |
| Corn Products                 | 129 1/2 |
| Cosden & Co.                  | 80 1/2  |
| Crescent Steel                | 61 1/2  |
| Erie                          | 13 1/2  |
| General Motors                | 18 1/2  |
| Great Northern                | 59 1/2  |
| Great Northern Ore            | 29 1/2  |
| Insurance Company             | 21 1/2  |
| Int. Mer. Marine              | 14 1/2  |
| Int. Nickel                   | 13 1/2  |
| International Paper           | 34 1/2  |
| Kent Spring                   | 34 1/2  |
| Kennecott Copper              | 34 1/2  |
| Lehigh Valley                 | 61 1/2  |
| Little Steel                  | 31 1/2  |
| N. Y. N. H. & H.              | 99 1/2  |
| Norfolk & Western             | 12 1/2  |
| Norfolk Pacific               | 104 1/2 |
| Norfolk Southern              | 61 1/2  |
| Pacific Oil                   | 81 1/2  |
| Pan American Pet. & Trans. A. | 90 1/2  |
| Pan American Pet. & Trans. B. | 59 1/2  |
| Pennsylvania Railroad         | 48 1/2  |
| Pittsburgh Coal               | 34 1/2  |
| Pittsburgh Steel              | 34 1/2  |
| Reading                       | 34 1/2  |
| Refr. Iron & Steel            | 48 1/2  |
| Royal Dutch                   | 214 1/2 |
| Southern Copper               | 89 1/2  |
| Southern Railway              | 89 1/2  |
| St. Ol. California            | 51 1/2  |
| St. Ol. New Jersey            | 87 1/2  |
| Windsor                       | 107 1/2 |
| Texas                         | 42 1/2  |
| Texas & Pacific Ry.           | 18 1/2  |
| Tobacco Products "A"          | 82 1/2  |
| Union Pacific                 | 131 1/2 |
| U. S. Industrial Alcohol Co.  | 34 1/2  |
| U. S. Rubber                  | 44 1/2  |
| U. S. Steel                   | 88 1/2  |
| Utah Copper                   | 50 1/2  |
| Westinghouse Electric         | 50 1/2  |
| White Motors                  | 31 1/2  |

THE JOINERS.

Jews of Interest to Members of Fraternal Organizations.

The following lodges hold regular meetings this evening:

Rising Sons and Daughters of Benevolence, 103 Cornell street.

Union Sick and Aid Society, 47 West Union street.

Kosciuszko Lodge, 86, 1 O. O. F. Mechanics' Hall, 14 Henry street.

Arcades Lodge, No. 122, 1 O. O. F., 36 East Strand.

Washington Camp, No. 2, P. O. S. of A., Pythian Hall, Thomas street.

Camp 20, P. O. of A., will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at their regular meeting place, Pythian Hall, corner Broadway and Thomas street.

Spanish Press Denies.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Madrid, Sept. 5.—Influential Spanish newspapers today denied the French accusation that King Alfonso's visit to Rome is to arrange an anti-French pact.

Brinnier Critically Ill.

Ex-Mayor William D. Brinnier is reported critically ill at his home on Delaware avenue. Mr. Brinnier has not been in good health for some time past.

Italy's Ambassador Killed.

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, Sept. 5.—The Italian ambassador to Japan was killed in the earthquake, said a dispatch from Nankai today.

Buys City Lots.

John Duffner of 21 Clinton avenue has purchased four parcels of land on Derrenbacher street of Lydia Peterson.

BUSINESS NOTICES

MRS. ALEXANDER HAYES, TEACHER OF VOICE AND PIANO. STUDIO, 20 GREEN STREET.

Society Notes

Tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock the wedding of Miss Olga Van Slyke Owens and Stuart Hucksins of Boston will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elean C. Owens, "Rockhurst." This afternoon the social party consisting of the bride and groom, Miss Ruth Shaffer, the maid of honor, Frederick Pratt of Boston, the best man, and Miss Jane Harder of Philmont, N. Y., the flower girl accompanied by Mr. Owens and Mrs. Hucksins dined at Watson Hollow Inn.

Powell-Schultz. Philo J. Powell and Miss Lillian Mabel Schultz of No. 37 Green street were united in marriage at Amsterdam, N. Y., on September 2, by the Rev. Alvah E. Knapp.

Mullins-Minn. John William Mullins and Miss Gertrude E. Minn, both of No. 137 Albany avenue, were united in marriage August 31, by the Rev. Eugene A. Duggan of St. Joseph's Church. They were attended by Miss Josie Hogan and William C. Murray.

Hallinan-Bernard. A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Delaware avenue when Joseph M. Hallinan and Miss Lillian Bernard were united in marriage by the Rev. Ignatius Bialdaga. The attendants were Walter Bernard, a brother of the bride, and Miss Catherine Hallinan, a sister of the groom. During the ceremony Mrs. Gehring presided at the organ and the choir sang. Following the ceremony a reception was enjoyed by the bride and party and a number of relatives and friends at the home of Mrs. James Cannon of Hone street. Mr. and Mrs. Hallinan left Sunday evening for Nantasket Beach, Mass., where they will spend their honeymoon and upon their return will reside on Broadway where a newly furnished home awaits them.

Bradford-Jones. Orrin Bradford and Lillian W. Jones, youngest daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Jones of the Plank road, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Father Duggan at St. Joseph's Church. The bride looked charming in a gown of white crepe and chiffon with a hat to match and carried bride roses and swansonia. The bridesmaid, Miss Gertrude Jones, wore a dress of brown crepe with a picture hat of pink roses and silver and carried pink roses and swansonia. The groom was attended by Albert Jones, a brother of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's mother on the Plank Road. A large number of guests attended from New York city, the bride's former home. The bride and groom left for a trip to England and other points of interest. After their return they will reside at West Hurley, where a newly furnished home awaits them.

Celebrate 50th Anniversary. A reception was given Mr. and Mrs. William Dietz of 101 Bruyn avenue at the home of their son, Lorenzo, 86 Henry street, in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary, September 3.

A bountiful supper was served at which time Mr. and Mrs. Dietz were recipients of very useful gifts of gold. Music and games were enjoyed by those present. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. James Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Dietz, Messrs. William and Kenneth Allen, and Miss Harriet Dietz of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William Dietz of Poughkeepsie, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Kennedy and Harry Mary of New Haven, Conn., Harry and Winifred Dietz of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dietz and daughter Esther of Cleveland, Ohio. All parted at an early hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Dietz many more years of happy life.

Their Fiftieth Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. William W. Schultz, who reside on Hasbrouck avenue, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Tuesday evening, August 28th, at the home of their son John in Jamaica, L. I. Among those present at the happy event were Mr. and Mrs. Schultz's three sons, John S. of Jamaica, L. I., William Wallace, at son Addison of Kingston, and Allen of Weehawken, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen, Mr. and Mrs. W. Allen, of Brooklyn, Charles Allen of Jamaica, the Misses Olive Parish of Kingston, Mabel Wandling, Margaret Staughnessy, Evelyn Schultz, Gladys Schultz, Mrs. John Ziegler, and the Messrs. Ralph Kleffer, William and Albert McDonald, August Young, Wesley Knasch, George Bee and Herbert Van Dyck. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz have nine grandchildren and one great grandson, all of whom were present at the joyous gathering. During the evening the couple who have passed the fiftieth milestone of wedded life, were presented with many valuable gifts, and a repeat befitting the occasion was served, after which the young folks made merry with dancing, singing and music. Mr. Schultz has been in the employ of the Cornell Steamboat Company for over forty years, and is highly thought of, not only by his employees, but by a host of friends as well.

BARTH EMPLOYEES GIVE FOR JAPANESE RELIEF. In conformity with the request of the Red Cross in its appeal for stricken Japan, the L. Barth Co. employees today subscribed to the cause 100 per cent, every employee giving an amount. The amount subscribed by the employees of this industry was $45.50.

U. S. Vice-Consul Killed. By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 5.—Erle E. Fleckner, the American consul at Kobe, cable official confirmation of the death of Paul E. Jenks, the American vice-consul at Yokohama. His home was in Brooklyn, N. Y.

About the Folks

Mrs. H. D. Darrow is seriously ill at her home on Malden Lane.

John Doolin, Jr., is spending his vacation at Madison, N. J., and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Derveer of Amsterdam, N. Y., are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Cady.

Dr. and Mrs. Meinhardt and a party of friends spent the week-end at Moonhew Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sahler and Mrs. Hewitt Boice are enjoying a motor trip through the Catskills.

The Misses Annie and Lillie Bonesteel of Albany avenue, are enjoying some time at Moonhew Club.

Captain Halstead returned to New York city after spending the holiday with his family at 124 Smith avenue.

Alexander McKewn of West Chestnut street has accepted a responsible position in the office of the Canfield Supply Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wade of Henry street, who have been on a trip to Toronto, Canada and Detroit, have returned home.

Mrs. William Griffin of Arlington, New Jersey, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Klein on Hasbrouck avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas MacCauley of 136 West Pierpont street spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogan, Ashokan, N. Y.

Mrs. William Fox and family of Brooklyn, who have been spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Bolan of Belvedere street, have returned home.

Robert Stenson of Rogers street, who underwent an operation at the Kingston City Hospital on Monday, is improving under the care of Dr. J. S. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wendland of Staple street have returned home after spending the past week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Diriam of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Richter and Mrs. Richter's mother motored up from the Bronx, New York, and are spending a few weeks at the home of John Reis at No. 78 Andrew street.

Miss Agnes Woerner of 47 Hoffman street, who recently underwent an operation performed by Drs. W. J. and John G. O'Leary at the Benedictine Hospital, is improving nicely.

Miss Marion Dermody of No. 69 East Chester street, was operated on for appendicitis at the Kingston City Hospital on Tuesday. She is resting today as comfortably as can be expected.

Mrs. James Gayley of Jersey City, has returned home after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Nulty of Greenkill avenue, also attending the Fitzgerald-Kingfield wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. George Chandler have left for a two weeks' vacation and will visit the state fair in Syracuse and a medical convention in Philadelphia before returning about September 20.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Visone of Bayonne, N. J., who spent Labor Day with Mrs. George Sinsbaugh on Lindsley avenue, and Miss Lottie Akery of Jersey City, returned home.

Miss Helen Brodhead and friend, Harry Freer and Mrs. Anna Brodhead and Mrs. Homer I. Goodsell and daughter, Edna have returned from an auto trip to New Rochelle and other points of interest.

Miss Elsa D. Wendland of Staple street has returned home after spending the past two months with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Diriam and other relatives in New York, Brooklyn and New Jersey.

Mrs. Hewitt Boice had as her week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Devo and son Vernon of Newark, Miss Mildred Long, Miss Edith L. Devo of Paterson, N. J., Mrs. Ethelynn Belts and Mr. and Mrs. Williams and son of Bayside, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram North and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Vliet and son, and F. Hendel of Sleightsburgh, J. Macksey and daughter of New Jersey, spent the week-end camping at Esopus boat.

The trip was made by motor boat.

Mrs. D. H. Donovan of 293 West O'Reilly street has returned home after an extended stay at Peterburg, N. Y., where Mr. Donovan is employed by the D. J. Welch Construction Co. While there they toured the Berkshires, Vermont, New Hampshire, also the Mohawk Trail.

Peter Cragan and daughter Winifred of Peekskill, N. Y., are spending a few days in town visiting relatives.

While here Mr. Cragan, who is a former baseball player, at one time member of the old Kingston, the Fleischmanns and the Cincinnati Nationals, will see the Philadelphia Nationals and the Kingston Colonials play this afternoon unless rain prevents the game.

PORT EWEN.

The picture "The Last Moment" will show at Pythian Hall tonight at 8 o'clock sharp.

VAN WESTRUM CONVEYS PROPERTY TO JOCELYN.

Deeds have been filed in the county clerk's office by which Gerard S. Van Westrum, wife and daughter, convey to Seth Jocelyn the Keowaydin property in the towns of Hurley and Marbletown, also lands in the town of Kingston, formerly of George H. Muller, lands on the road leading from Kingston to Pine Bush, lands on Albany avenue in the city of Kingston, and parcels of land on the Maltby Hollow road in the town of Olive.

AUTO SEEN WHERE BOY WAS FOUND

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Windham, N. Y., Sept. 5 (Special).—An automobile with a man and a woman in it was seen within a hundred feet of the place where seven year old Howard Rothenberg was slain, William E. Thorpe, acting district attorney who is conducting the investigation into the child's mysterious death, revealed today.

Thorpe said the information was supplied by Howard More. More, however, was unable to give a good description of the man and woman, according to Thorpe. More said the automobile bore a New Jersey license plate.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

One Cent a Word

No Advertisement Less Than 25 Cents.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—New furniture, refrigerators, gas cooking, oil stoves and crockery, second hand furniture, household goods and appliances. 100 North Broadway. Phone 100.

FOR SALE—High grade tailor made suits, slightly worn. Five dollars up. 100 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Photo supplies. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seasoned wood. 100 per truck load. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—John F. Johnson's Good Luck. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Cement building blocks. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—General used upright piano. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Cement building blocks. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Kitchen range. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Ice at New Salem. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Or to LET—Rowboats and canoe. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Building land. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Baby carriage for sale. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—New piano boxes. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Sawed fire wood. 100 North Broadway.

One Cent a Word

No Advertisement Less Than 25 Cents.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

FOR SALE—Seven room house. 100 North Broadway.

One Cent a Word

No Advertisement Less Than 25 Cents.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

WANTED—Two dining room girls and an assistant. 100 North Broadway.

One Cent a Word

No Advertisement Less Than 25 Cents.

TO LET.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

TO LET—Garage. 100 North Broadway.

MATTERS BEFORE THE SURROGATE

In surrogate's court the last will and testament of Mary F. Roper, late of the town of Wawarsing, has been admitted to probate on petition of Edith Schupp. Value of estate, $5,000 real, $7,000 personal. Two sons and five daughters are beneficiaries in $1,000 each, and a granddaughter in $200. Raymond G. Cox, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Rosa A. Freer in the estate of David C. Freer, late of the town of Wawarsing. Value of estate, $4,500 real, $10,000 personal. H. Westlake Coons, attorney for the petitioner.

In the matter of the judicial settlement of the accounts of Deyo W. Johnson and William Hornbeck Deyo, as executors of the estate of William H. Deyo, late of Ellenville, account of proceedings filed and passed and decree directed. Raymond G. Cox, attorney for the petitioner.

The last will and testament of Elmina Carle, late of the city of Kingston, has been admitted to probate. Letters testamentary being issued to Daniel Connelly. Value of estate, $3,000 real, about $3,000 personal. There are thirty legatees and devisees. W. D. & W. D. Brinnier, Jr., attorneys for the petitioner.

The last will and testament of Hessel Hesseloff, late of the town of Wawarsing, has been admitted to probate and letters testamentary issued to Ida Hesseloff, the wife, with a daughter, is the beneficiary. Value of estate, $4,000 real, $3,000 personal. Raymond G. Cox, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Amanda J. McAniff in the estate of Timothy McAniff, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $6,000 real, $200 personal. Newton H. Fessenden, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Charles E. Petheridge in the estate of Lettie J. Petheridge, late of the town of Shawangunk. Value of estate, $2,400 personal. John N. Vanderlyn, attorney for the petitioner.

Letters of administration have been issued to Samuel D. Gibson in the estate of Marguerite Miller, late of the city of Kingston. Value of estate, $500 personal. Virgil E. Van Wagoner, attorney for the petitioner.

NEW YORK PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat—Steady. December, 105½; May, 111¼; September, 101¼; spot No. 2 red winter, 113, c. i. f. N. Y. export basis, and 115, f. o. b. to arrive.

Corn—Finner. No. 2 yellow new, 109½; No. 2 white, 109½; No. 2 mixed, 108½, c. i. f. New York 10 days' shipment.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 5, 1923.
Sun rises, 5:29; sets, 6:27.
Weather, cloudy.
The Temperature.
The lowest point registered by The Freeman's thermometer last night was 63 degrees. The highest point reached up until noon today was 79 degrees.
Weather Forecast.
Washington, Sept. 5.—Cloudy and unsettled; probably showers tonight; Thursday cloudy; no change in temperature, gentle to moderate southerly winds.

BUSINESS NOTICES
Dr. Broberg, Graduate Chiropractor and Chiropractor, 65 St. James St. Office closed until September 10th.
Local and long distance trucking. Tel. 2159-J. RAY WINNIE.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL
Variety of gladiolus now. Come and see them. VALENTIN BURGEVIN, INC., Fair and Main streets.
Laman T. & James H. Schoonmaker, contractors and builders. Jobbing a specialty. Phone 287-R or 1237-M.

THE HOME COUNTY MAGAZINE
Past and Present in the Great Hudson River Valley Counties re-clothed. Memories that are strangely new; heart and under-the-skin incidents recalled; illustrated; printed monthly for the Elect. Subscription $2.50. Joseph Drake, Publisher, 116 Nassau street, New York.

MOVING, TRUCKING, EXPRESS.
Local and long distance. Masten & Strubel, 742 Broadway. Phone 2212-M.

Luella Wood having left my bed and board. I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her. ABRAM WOOD, JR.

SPECIAL SALE
Kingston "Maid" House Dresses and Factory Mill Ends. David Weil, 44 Broadway, Bargain House.

Parish Taxi Service. Sedans for funerals and weddings. Phone 20-W.

Moving, trucking and express. Local and long distance. Also general mason contractor. Cement floors and sidewalks a specialty. James A. Sass, telephone 1836-J.

Piano Tuners, Frederick C. Winters, James H. Winters, 231 Clinton Ave. Phone 1113-J.

Leslie's electrical store, 102 1/2 Broadway. Estimates furnished for house wiring. Repairing fixtures and appliances. Telephone 524-W.

Baggage, express, moving and trucking local and long distance. SHELDON TOMPKINS, 32 Clinton avenue. Phone 649.

PIANO TUNING AND REPAIRING.
R. E. MARTINIS, 156 Prospect street. Phone 1847-W.

H. SIMPSON, 45 North Front street; watch and jewelry repairing; work guaranteed.

Mrs. Salzmans' 100 per cent whole wheat bread at your grocer.

WILLIAM H. RIESER,
Music Studio, 69 West Chester St. Instruction piano, organ, voice. New pupils please apply by mail or phone.

W. Whiting Fredenburgh, instructor of Music, will resume teaching, Monday, September 10th. Residence: Studio 142 Clinton ave. Telephone 84.

Fuller Brush Man, 67 Abrum street, at your service. E. P. Shea, Tel. 656-R.

Dr. Magnus Gross, Chiropractor, 284-286 Wall Street, Tel. 420. Treats all foot ailments. Open evenings. Sunday by appointment.

STORK BROS. TAXI SERVICE.
Day or night. Phone 2100.

N. Y. O. & W. ANNUAL SALT WATER DAY EXCURSION.
The N. Y. O. & W. R. R. will run their annual Salt Water Day Excursion to New York City on Sunday, September 16. Special train will leave Kingston 6:45 a. m. Eastern Standard Time. Round trip fare $2.55. Returning special train will leave West 42nd street, New York 7:15 p. m. Write or phone N. Y. O. & W. Agent for details.

FOOTBALL MEN AT TRAINING CAMP

Seventeen of the local high school boys reported Tuesday morning at the Y. M. C. A. and were conveyed to the football training camp located at Fourth Blinnewater.
An advance party had already located the tents, and the squad had camp in first class shape in short order.
Miles G. Stroup, the member of the Kingston High School faculty who is coaching football this year, was on the ground and after dinner the squads were given their first practice.
Several other fellows are expected to arrive today and get in condition for the team.
Captain "Bill" O'Reilly is on the job and is in fine form.
Mr. Miller, of the Y. M. C. A., is in charge of the camp and looking after the fellows' comfort as well as making physical examinations of each candidate.
Tuesday evening was given over to a study of the rules. Tonight a couple of old-time football men will give short talks on "Football As It Used to Was."

FIRPO'S CRUSHING BIGHT GIVES HIM CONFIDENCE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 5.—Luis Angel Firpo is confident that he is rounding into shape and will be in the pink of condition when he meets Jack Dempsey on the night of September 14. And the Argentine believes he will annex the heavy-weight title.
Firpo today said that he did not know exactly when his "moment of triumph" would come, but he was sure that sometime during the 15 rounds he would drive his powerful right through Dempsey's defense, and the fight would be over.
Firpo went through his usual early morning jog today and followed this by his gymnasium and boxing preparation.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Mrs. T. H. McCutcheon, licensed undertaker and embalmer, 44 Prince street. Telephone 1920.

17 New Victor Records for September now on sale. E. Winter's Sons Music Store, Kingston, N. Y.

Our prices are right. Tubby & Thiel, Carpenters and Builders. Phone 1454-M. 63 Grant street.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
My wife, Gertrude Van Steenburgh, has left my bed and board without any cause and I will not pay any bills run by her.
WILLIAM VAN STEENBURGH.

DR. C. EDWARDS, Chiropractor, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., now 297 Washington avenue; cars to door. Hours—Mon., Wed., Fri., 2-5 p. m. Consultation free. Telephone 1633-M.

The Misses Lina and Sophie Schmidtkonz have resumed teaching their class of piano pupils. New pupils may apply before September 17th.

FURNITURE AND PIANO MOVING
Closed van; local and long distance. Phone 1122-J.
ALBERT KREISIG, Cor. Broadway and St. James St.

PAINTING Service that Satisfies.
FRANK P. MESSENGER, 14 Franklin street. Phone 713.

Scanlon's Taxi Service. Closed Cars, Day and Night. Call 1898 or 1140-W.

SNYDER BROTHERS' EXPRESS.
Phone 757. 628 Broadway. Baggage and delivery service, moving and hauling; local and long distance.

The newest and latest on Victor records. Come in and hear them. Kaplan Furniture Co., 14 East Strand. Open evenings.

When it's trucking, local or long distance, call 885. PINN'S baggage express, 31 Clinton avenue.
The Daily Freeman is on sale at the following stands of the Schultz News Agency in New York city: 102 West 42nd street, 42nd street and Park avenue (opposite Grand Central Depot), 30th street and Broadway (S. Y. Corner), 42nd street and Sixth avenue (S. E. Corner.)

RESULTS IN BATTERY LEAGUE

The Trigger Squeeze nine of the local Battery E League fell to defeat at the hands of Sergeant Cunningham's Cock and Aim squad at the armory on Tuesday evening. Bush, the star pitcher for the sergeant's team did the pitching, while Corporal Long surprised the men by putting a new corner at the mound. Sergeant Reis, who showed he had the makings of a pitcher, he was only given a chance. The sergeant pitched wonderful ball until the last inning when his wing weakened and allowed four men to walk to first in a row and letting his opponents score ten runs in the fatal seventh. The corporal did the catching for his team and showed that he was either out of place in this position or had an off night. He was weak with the old willow. The game was an exciting one from start to finish and it was not until the last inning that the Cock and Aim Club managed to get enough hits and walks to forge ahead. However when they did start hitting and walking it was all over as far as the Trigger Squeeze nine was concerned, due to the fact that they could not see Bush for hunched hits although Corporal Long's squad received more hits off Bush than their opponents received from the sergeant.
The Trigger Squeeze outfit their opponents 28-13, but they left thirteen men stranded on the bags while the Cock and Aimers only left four men die on the sacks.
Reis pitched some very good ball, but the entire team lacked in backing up the few hits that their opponents got.
DuBois, who was playing with the Trigger Squeeze squad, came through with two of the longest cracks that any of the Battery E men have made. They were hit to center field and after a good deal of effort he managed to stretch both hits to homers.
Houghtaling and Freer did some nice field work, both catching flies and sending the ball to first making double plays.
The only man that did not get a hit or run in the game was C. Ward, who played with the Sergeant.

Cock and Aim Nine.
Corey, rf. 5 1 2
Bush, p. 5 1 2
E. Van Etten, cf. 5 1 1
DeGraft, c. 5 2 2
C. Ward, 2b. 5 0 0
Howard, 1b. 5 3 2
B. Van Etten, ss. 5 3 1
Melville, lf. 5 2 2
Dickson, 3b. 5 3 1
Totals 45 16 13

Trigger Squeeze Nine.
Houghtaling, 2b. 4 1 4
Burns, ss. 5 4 4
Powell, cf. 5 3 5
Flowers, 1b. 5 0 1
Wolcott, 3b. 5 1 3
Freer, lf. 5 1 1
Reis, p. 5 2 5
Long, c. 5 0 1
Totals 45 15 28

Home Runs—DuBois, 2. Three Base Hits—Freer, Houghtaling, DeGraft. Base on Balls—Off Reis, 9; off Bush, 4. Left on Bases—Trigger Squeeze, 13; Cock and Aim, 4. Umpire—A. Rice. Time of Game—One hour.

Score by Innings:
Cock and Aim 1 4 0 1 0 0 10-16
Trigger Squeeze 2 6 0 0 5 1 1-15
The next game will be played on Monday evening, September 10, between the Discipline Nine and the Trigger Squeeze.

Standing of the Clubs.
Discipline Nine 1 0 1.000
Cock and Aim Nine 1 1 1.500
Trigger Squeeze Nine 0 1 .000

TAGGING ALL THE BASES IN THE BIG LEAGUES

Boy bring a niche for Mr. Jones of the New York Yankees. Mr. Jones shut out the Athletics without a hit while the Yanks got to Harry for seven hits and two runs. It was the first hitless game in the major leagues this season, only three men reaching first base on a pass, an error by Scott and a force play.
In a duel of left-hands, Rixey got slightly the better of Cooper and the Reds beat the Pirates, 2 to 1.
Danforth wilted in the late innings, the Indians beating the Browns, 6 to 2.
The Cubs gained a rolling fall over the Cardinals, 5 to 2, Boake being rushed off the premises in the seventh.
Scott shut out the Braves and inspired by Kelly's homer with two on in the eighth, the Giants won, 3 to 0.
Outside of the fact that he drove in the first two runs with successive hits and stole home with the other, Goslin had little to do with the Senators 3 to 1 defeat of the Red Sox.
The Tigers again made merry at the expense of the White Sox pitching and pounded out a 5 to 2 decision.

DEMPSEY RESUMES TRAINING FOR SPEED

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Jack Dempsey went at his training with renewed vigor today following his day of rest yesterday.
The champion plans to develop speed during the next week and most of his training for the rest of his stay here will be towards that end.
The champion is now near his fighting weight. He plans to enter the ring against Firpo weighing around 135 pounds. He tips the scale now at 193.

Writ Refused.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Dublin, Sept. 5.—A writ of habeas corpus was today refused Eamonn Donnelly, Sinn Fein director of elections, who is in jail here. No legal attempt has been made to liberate Eamonn De Valera.

Better Merchandise Better Service Better Business

26 Broadway S. C. Eighing Downtown

National Gingham Week—Sept. 5th to 12th!

This is NATIONAL GINGHAM WEEK and we are showing a wonderfully fine selection of quality gingham and seersuckers at very moderate prices. Ours are the best gingham which can be had, made by the largest and most reliable of manufacturers.

Domestic Gingham
Thousands of yards of sturdy, serviceable and pretty gingham in fall stripes, checks or plaids as well as plain colors, 32 in. wide.
25c and 35c yard

Punjab Percalé
Absolutely guaranteed as to fastness of colors. They are very high count and our fall patterns are pretty indeed. Ideal for blouses, shirts, aprons, dresses, etc. 36 in. wide.
Priced 25c yard

Mercerized Poplin
Makes pretty dresses, launders beautifully and wears long. Also excellent for trimming the gingham dress. Many good colors. Yard wide.
59c yard

Imported Gingham
Fine closely woven with rich mercerized finish in good assortment of good patterns and colors and they are 32 in. wide.
45c yard

New Percalé
Good grade of percale in many new and attractive patterns. 36 in. wide.
19c yard

Pamlico Cloth
Ideal for children's or grown up's clothing. Similar to beach cloth and guaranteed to be absolutely fast colors, peach, tan, old gold, rose, copenhagen, blue, lavender, white, pumpkin, etc. 36 in. wide.
49c yard

BRIGHT COLORED FALL GINGHAMS FOR SCHOOL
GINGHAMS, sturdy, bright plaids and checks in fall colors make pretty school frocks. Two children's dresses for the new gingham are shown above. They come in the simplest pattern you've ever seen—the new new McCall Printed Pattern.
It's printed for simplicity. It's printed for accuracy. Whatever McCall style you choose, and there are many, many of them suitable for gingham, you can be sure it will give you the utmost ease and speed in sewing.
Ask to see more styles suitable for gingham at the McCall Pattern Counter.

SPECIAL PRICES ON GINGHAM DRESSES
Children's Gingham Dresses made of high grade gingham at special reduced prices. There are many styles to choose from as well as patterns. They make an ideal school frock.
Former values $1.50 to $2.97.
Special 95c and $1.35

One Thing For You to Remember

WE

have everything the Autoist needs for his car, in the way of auto accessories.

Also

GENUINE FORD PARTS

We can always supply the demand.

M. H. HERZOG

332 WALL ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.
PHONE 134.

Boy being a niche for Mr. Jones of the New York Yankees. Mr. Jones put out the Athletics without a hit while the Yanks got to Hartly for seven hits and two runs. It was the hottest game in the major leagues this season, only three men reaching first base on a pass, an error by Scott and a force play.

In a duel of left-handed, Rixey got slightly the better of Cooper and the Cubs beat the Pirates, 2 to 1.

Danforth wilted in the late innings, the Indians beating the Browns, 6 to 2.

The Cubs gained a rolling fall over the Cardinals, 3 to 2, Doake being pushed off the premises in the seventh.

Scott shut out the Braves and inspired Kelly's homer with two on the eighth, the Giants won, 2 to 0.

Outside of the fact that he drove in the first two runs with successive hits and stole home with the other, Gosdard had little to do with the Senators to a defeat of the Red Sox.

The Tigers again made merry at the expense of the White Sox pitching and pounded out a 5 to 2 decision.

DEMPSEY RESUMES TRAINING FOR SPEED

Telegram to The Freeman.

White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Jack Dempsey went at his training with renewed vigor today following his day of rest yesterday.

The champion plans to develop speed during the next week and most his training for the rest of his stay here will be towards that end.

The champion is now near his titling weight. He plans to enter ring against Firpo weighing around 185 pounds. He tips the scale now at 193.

Writ Refused.

Telegram to The Freeman.

Dublin, Sept. 5.—A writ of habeas corpus was today refused Eamonn Kennedy, Sinn Féin director of elections, who is in jail here. No legal attempt has been made to liberate Eamonn De Valera.

ON THE DIAMOND.

Yesterday's Big League Results and Today's Games.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

National League.

|              |    |    |      |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| New York     | 82 | 50 | .621 |
| Cincinnati   | 76 | 51 | .598 |
| Pittsburgh   | 74 | 53 | .582 |
| Chicago      | 71 | 59 | .546 |
| St. Louis    | 65 | 65 | .500 |
| Brooklyn     | 60 | 66 | .476 |
| Boston       | 43 | 85 | .336 |
| Philadelphia | 42 | 84 | .333 |

American League.

|              |    |    |      |
|--------------|----|----|------|
| New York     | 82 | 43 | .656 |
| Cleveland    | 69 | 56 | .552 |
| Detroit      | 64 | 58 | .525 |
| St. Louis    | 63 | 60 | .512 |
| Washington   | 60 | 66 | .476 |
| Chicago      | 56 | 67 | .455 |
| Philadelphia | 52 | 71 | .423 |
| Boston       | 48 | 73 | .397 |

International League.

|             |    |    |      |
|-------------|----|----|------|
| Baltimore   | 94 | 50 | .653 |
| Rochester   | 90 | 58 | .608 |
| Buffalo     | 78 | 70 | .527 |
| Reading     | 72 | 73 | .497 |
| Toronto     | 72 | 74 | .493 |
| Syracuse    | 65 | 82 | .442 |
| Newark      | 56 | 84 | .400 |
| Jersey City | 55 | 91 | .377 |

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

National League.

New York, 3; Boston, 0.

Cincinnati, 2; Pittsburgh, 1.

Chicago, 3; St. Louis, 2.

American League.

New York, 2; Philadelphia, 0.

Washington, 3; Boston, 1.

Detroit, 5; Chicago, 2.

Cleveland, 6; St. Louis, 2.

International League.

Baltimore, 7; Reading, 1.

Toronto, 5; Rochester, 4. (Third-innings.)

Buffalo, 7; Syracuse, 2.

Buffalo, 8; Syracuse, 2.

GAMES SCHEDULED TODAY.

National League.

Cincinnati at Pittsburgh, rain.

American League.

New York at Philadelphia, clear.

Washington at Boston, clear.

Only games.

International League.

Newark at Jersey City, clear. Two games.

Rochester at Toronto, cloudy.

Buffalo at Syracuse, clear.

Baltimore at Reading, cloudy. Two games.

CURRENT OFFERINGS AT THE THEATERS

In his latest picture, "Stepping Fast," at Keeney's tonight, Tom Mix exchanges his famous Stetson for the small white hat of a sailor during part of the action, in which the star plays the role of a young ranchman who inadvertently gets mixed up with a gang of international crooks. Then the fun and the momentum begins and "Stepping Fast" is Tom's middle name.

Club women are making Cosmopolitan's "When Knighthood Was in Flower," a Paramount picture, starring Marion Davies, coming to the Auditorium today. As subject for commendatory discussion as a sample of what the motion picture can and should be. Many of the criticisms of motion pictures in general have come from club women, but at last they have found a picture which meets with their whole hearted approval from their standpoint.

Today at the Orpheum Theater for the last time the same vaudeville will be shown. The Paramount picture is Charlie Ray in "Red Hot Dollars." Tomorrow there will be an entire change of program. "The Broadway Scandals," a big musical comedy, consisting of 29 people. New songs, latest dances, special scenery and gorgeous costumes. Also a first run Paramount picture. Madge Kennedy in "The Purple Highway."

Cronin Sworn In.

Cornelius V. Cronin of Newburgh was sworn in Tuesday, at Albany, as a deputy attorney general.

American League.
New York at Philadelphia, clear.
Washington at Boston, clear.
Only games.

International League.
Newark at Jersey City, clear. Two games.
Rochester at Toronto, cloudy.
Buffalo at Syracuse, clear.
Baltimore at Reading, cloudy. Two games.

CURRENT OFFERINGS AT THE THEATERS
In his latest picture, "Stepping Fast," at Keeney's tonight, Tom Mix exchanges his famous Stetson for the small white hat of a sailor during part of the action, in which the star plays the role of a young ranchman who inadvertently gets mixed up with a gang of international crooks. Then the fun and the momentum begins and "Stepping Fast" is Tom's middle name.
Club women are making Cosmopolitan's "When Knighthood Was in Flower," a Paramount picture, starring Marion Davies, coming to the Auditorium today. A subject for commendatory discussion as a sample of what the motion picture can and should be. Many of the criticisms of motion pictures in general have come from club women, but at last they have found a picture which meets with their wholehearted approval from their standpoint.
Today at the Orpheum Theater for the last time the same vaudeville will be shown. The Paramount picture is Charlie Ray in "Red Hot Dollars." Tomorrow there will be an entire change of program. "The Broadway Scandals," a big musical comedy, consisting of 20 people. New songs, latest dances, special scenery and gorgeous costumes. All to a first run Paramount picture, Widge Kennedy in "The Purple Highway."

Crown Sworn In.
Cornelius V. Cronin of Newburgh was sworn in Tuesday, at Albany, as a deputy attorney general.

The Ring She Would Love To Own
A BEAUTIFUL girlish ring, with a sparkling diamond and a stylish setting, that will make her the happiest girl in all the world—and the price is only $100.00
Safford & Scudder's immense stock teems with clever surprises. In every line there are worthy things at very moderate prices. Our values are the best in years and the selection never was better.
Come in and Make a Selection Now.
Cordially yours,
SAFFORD & SCUDDER,
"The House of Lucky Wedding Rings."
310 Wall St., Kingston, N. Y.

Everybody knows that the Freeman's Canteen-Word ad. brings quick results. Try them.